Former Jurist Ordered To Prison

by MURRAY MORGAN RECONSTRUCTION

These Hall kids, you know, the kids that live in the projects. They have to obey the law. They can't go around breaking windows and such. The judge said that if they don't obey the law, then they will be sent to prison.

The protest outside the courthouse was peaceful. We want justice for our community. We won't stop until the problem is solved.

Man Held In Biggest Art Theft

LONDON (AP) — A former employee of a London art gallery has been arrested in connection with the theft of a famous painting.

The theft occurred on Saturday night and involved art valued at $2 million. The suspect is said to have been an employee of the gallery for several years.

Just Then

There was a knock on the door. It was the police. They wanted to talk to me about my brother.

The ISP didn't come right out and say it. They just showed me the pictures and said I was a suspect.

I've never had anything to do with my brother. I'm innocent. I don't know what they're talking about.

Birds of a Feather

There were three of us. We were all together at the time of the crime. We didn't do it.

State Given New Penal Blueprint

Truck Driving’s Not So Bad, Buzzie

In JOE MORRIS

IT’S A COMMON misguidance that all truck drivers are hard on their shoes and are always in a hurry. But Mr. Joe Morris, a professional driver for over 20 years, says it’s not necessarily true. He says that, contrary to popular belief, many drivers do enjoy their work and take pride in their job.

Mr. Morris attributes this attitude to the fact that most drivers have a strong sense of responsibility. He explains that when you’re driving a truck, you’re responsible for the safety of not only yourself, but also the passengers who ride in your vehicle. This sense of responsibility, he says, can make for a more enjoyable job.

A STATEMENT TO OKLAHOMA COUNTY CITIZENS

On December 26, 1966, two officials of Mid-Century News Company were indicted by the Oklahoma County grand jury on charges of committing 10 mail frauds in the sale of false literature.

It is the purpose of this advertisement to state our side of this controversial situation.

WHO ARE WE . . . WHAT DO WE DO?

Mid-Century News Company has been the distributor of books and magazines in Oklahoma City for 38 years. We also provide the same service in 14 other states.

Among 30 per cent of the reading material distributed in this community through our agency. Everything from Ladies Home Journal to Parke's is quickly and efficiently moved to your local news stand for your convenience.

In addition to regularly published books and magazines, we distribute records, children's books and many other items. We are in business to serve you.

Over the years our firm and our officers have worked hard to help this city and state. Time magazine has recognized us by naming us "National Paper of the Week" in January, April and June each year.

WHAT ARE WE ACCUSED OF DOING?

The indictments brought against us and another company charge that we allegedly distributed material to blind persons.

We are accused under 18 U.S.C. 1071(a) that we are accused of distributing material which is distributed by a mail carrier who does not deliver it to blind persons.

We are accused under 18 U.S.C. 1072(a) that we are accused of distributing material which is distributed by a mail carrier who does not deliver it to blind persons.

By implication, we are accused of being unprofitable, which would make our service unprofitable.

We are accused of being unprofitable, which would make our service unprofitable.

WHAT MORAL SAFEGUARDS EXIST?

Every publication and book distributed by Mid-Century News is accepted by the United States Post Office Department and is subject to the laws governing the distribution of books and publications.

In addition, we have established a code of ethics governing the conduct of our employees and agents.

WHAT IS OUR POSITION ON BOOK BANNING?

The books and periodicals we sell must have been published and approved by the United States Library of Congress. We never refuse to distribute any book or periodical that is acceptable.

We believe in the freedom of speech and the right of every individual to read and learn. We will never refuse to distribute any book or periodical that is acceptable.

However, while we support the right of every individual to read and learn, we also believe in the responsibility of the publisher to ensure that the material is distributed to those who can benefit from it.

The role of Mid-Century News is to render a service to the public—not attempt to gain the public.

We would be appalled if any publisher or agent were to try to prevent us from distributing material that we believe is beneficial to the general public.

We cannot accept that the sale of books and magazines is a right that can be refused by any publisher or agent.

A STATEMENT TO OKLAHOMA COUNTY CITIZENS

On December 28, 1965, two officials of Mid-Continent News Company were indicted by the Oklahoma County grand jury on charges of committing 10 misdemeanors regarding the sale of obscene literature. It is the purpose of this advertisement to state our side of this controversial situation.

WHO ARE WE... WHAT DO WE DO?

Mid-Continent News Company has been the distributor of books and magazines in Oklahoma City for 30 years. We also provide the same service in 15 other states.

Among 30 per cent of the reading material distributed in this county comes through our books and magazines, and the Oklahoma County Libraries Journal in February quickly and efficiently moved to point that we are a source for your convenience.

In addition to regularly published books and magazines, we distribute non-fiction, fiction, and many other items. We are just 15 years old.

Over the years our firm and our officers have worked hard to help the city grow and prosper. Every major city and suburban undertaking in Oklahoma City has received substantial backing from us.

WHAT ARE WE ACCUSED OF DOING?

The instruments brought against us and another company off, in 1965, we believe has been a concerted effort to restrict the distribution of new books and magazines.

The law does not tell us who will judge the best books, nor how the judge will decide. Without the ability to be fair, or to be impartial in deciding whether a particular piece of acceptable or not, we do not feel we could bring a lawsuit against the Oklahoma City

WHAT MORAL SAFEGUARDS EXIST?

Every publication and book distributed by Mid-Continent News is acceptable to the United States Post Office Department and is subject to the approval of the United States Senate.

The material we distribute is arranged throughout the United States in several different areas, and is available in bookstores, newsstands, and subscription services.

We have only judgment is that it is possible for us to believe in any moral or aesthetic standards that are in any way superior to those of the people we serve.

We, therefore, are going to do our own research and act in accordance with the principles we believe in and the morals we observe.

We are going to do this within the framework of legality. We are going to be able to do this without any guidelines or official capacity to do so.

WHAT IS OUR POSITION ON BOOK BANNING?

The books and periodicals we will publish must be read by others, and in order to serve our readers, we must have a reputation for being able to represent their views.

All the publications we distribute are changed every six months, and we change them every six months. We do not accept any material that may be offensive, unsuitable, or objectionable.

The natural tendency to read is to read and to be able to do so without interference. The natural tendency to read is to read to the fullest extent possible.

In their distribution of obscenity, books and periodicals do not like to read, they are going to do their best to keep obscenity off the distribution list.

The moral and ethical standards of our company have always been based on what we believe is acceptable and what we believe is acceptable.

We cannot agree that individual views are a valid qualification for censorship, even if we were to agree that they are valid.

We will continue to publish the religious and cultural literature that we believe is acceptable and morally acceptable.

Sincerely,

J. L. Hines, President

It is the purpose of this advertisement to state some of these charges.

WHO ARE WE... WHAT DO WE DO?

Mid-Continent News Company has been the distributor of books and magazines in Oklahoma City for 25 years. We also publish the same 10 or more other states.

Within 24 hours of the indictment, three men were employed on the sales force, which consists of 25 salesmen, to help in the investigation. We have also appointed three additional salesmen to assist in the investigation.

WHAT ARE WE ACCUSED OF DOING?

The indictment brought against us and our cooperating officials states that we materially and knowingly distributed books and magazines and solicit and sell them.

We are accused of selling books and magazines which we knew to be obscene. We are also accused of selling books and magazines which we knew to be obscene and which we knew to be harmful to the public.

WHAT MORA L SAFEGUARDS EXIST?

We appeal to the United States Post Office Department to seek out and destroy the material which we know to be obscene. We also appeal to the United States Post Office to seek out and destroy the material which we know to be harmful to the public.

WHAT IS OUR POSITION ON BOOK BANING?

Demand Rising For Court Reform In State

By CLAUDE M. KELLY

A constitutional amendment to reform Oklahoma's court system is gathering support in the State Legislature. Interest in the proposal is increasing as state and county officials realize the need for immediate action to provide a judicial system adequate for the needs of the people.

Legislation calling for a constitutional convention to draft the amendment has been introduced. However, the measure has not received much attention from lawmakers.

This is not surprising since the proposal is still in its early stages. Nevertheless, the move toward constitutional reform provides an opportunity to address important issues affecting the administration of justice.

Judges and Juries

The proposed amendment would provide for the election of judges and juries. This change is necessary because of the current system's lack of accountability. Judges are appointed by the governor, and juries are selected by the court system.

The amendment would also provide for the creation of a new court of appeals. This court would handle appeals from lower courts, ensuring that decisions are made fairly and consistently.

Attorneys and Trials

Another important aspect of the proposed amendment is the rule about attorney representation. Currently, attorneys can handle cases without being present in court. The amendment would require attorneys to be present in court during trials.

This change is necessary to ensure that defendants have access to competent legal representation. It would also help to prevent abuse of the legal system by ensuring that attorneys are held accountable for their actions.

In summary, the proposed amendment to reform Oklahoma's court system is a step in the right direction. It would provide for the election of judges and juries, a new court of appeals, and rules regarding attorney representation. These changes would help to ensure that the judicial system is fair, accountable, and efficient.
