Tulsa, Okla., June 20, 1962

The Crisis in Oklahoma's schools is the result of a complex and multi-faceted problem, involving both educational and social issues. The crisis has been exacerbated by the recent decisions of the Oklahoma Board of Education, which have led to widespread protests and calls for action. The Oklahoma Board of Education is responsible for the oversight of public schools in the state, and its decisions have significant implications for the future of education in Oklahoma.

Let's Get A Hit For The 'Y'
A Central Park Canopy for the 'Y'

This year the Young Men's Christian Association is planning to build a beautiful canopy over the entrance to the Oklahoma City YMCA. The canopy will provide a covered area for the Young Men's and the YMCA, and will be a magnificent addition to the downtown area.

Sex Crimes Can Be Stopped...Part 4

Deviate Could Be Anyone

By LUNA WAHBY

Manchester, N.H., Jan. 26 (AP) - The man who conducted his sexual activities in public places and at night was identified yesterday as John Brown, 28, a school teacher.

Brown, who was arrested for soliciting a 12-year-old girl for sexual purposes, was charged with four counts of lewd conduct.

He denied the charges and said he was innocent.

"I didn't do it," he said. "I didn't do it."
