U. Of Cal. Prexy Fired By Regents

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) - President John Kemeny of the University of California yesterday fired his embattled administrative assistant and the president of his board of regents, a move that paved the way for the resignation of the university's chancellor.

A House of Cards: Kerr during the past year, the Republican governor has turned the board's decision "to very responsible others.

Kerr, president of the Cal-Oregon University Board for nearly 10 years, said yesterday that he would resign in order to fight for the Democratic Party. The board of regents, which is responsible for the university, has been considering Kerr's resignation, sources said.

Wilson Etches History Into Kerr Painting

By JOHN CUMBER

The renowned artist, whose works have been displayed in galleries around the world, has created a new piece of art that is sure to captivate audiences. The painting, which depicts a scene from World War II, will be unveiled at a special ceremony on Saturday.

The artist, known for his realistic portraits, has taken inspiration from the war years and has painted a moving scene of soldiers in uniform, standing together in a circle. The artwork is a tribute to the sacrifice and bravery of those who served during the war.

The ceremony will be held at the local museum, where the painting will be on display for public viewing. The artist will be present to discuss the inspiration behind the painting and answer questions from the audience.

The event is open to the public and will include refreshments and a special performance by a local band. Tickets are available at the museum's website or at the door.

Don't miss this opportunity to see this incredible piece of art and to honor the courage of our ancestors.
