State Senator Calls Company's Test Stand

State steroid calls out company's test stand.

State and federal officials have been investigating a firetrap at a test stand at Oklahoma State University. The test stand is used for the testing of new aircraft components and has been the site of several fires in the past.

The state senator named the company involved in the test stand and called for an investigation by federal authorities.

The state and federal officials have been investigating the company's test stand for several years. The test stand has been the site of several fires in the past. The state senator has called for an investigation by federal authorities and has demanded that the company be held responsible for the fires.

The company has denied any fault and has refused to cooperate with the investigation.

The state senator has called for a full investigation by federal authorities and has demanded that the company be held responsible for the fires. The state senator has also called for the test stand to be shut down and for the company to be held responsible for any future fires.

ENJOY THE BETTER
WAY OF LIFE IN A
TOTAL ELECTRIC
GOLD MEDALLION HOME

...AS MODERN TOMORROW
AS IT IS TODAY!

Your home is probably the major investment of your lifetime and you make your choice of a new home with a careful eye to the future. You want it to be as modern tomorrow as it is today. A total electric, Gold Medalion Home will always be modern because it puts electricity to its fullest use. Inside and out, your home has all the magic electricity can perform—plus ample housepower for future appliances.

Like a flag or a Scout merit badge, the Gold Medalion is a symbol—important only in so far as it stands for. It's your guarantee that the homebuilder has met high electrical standards that will pay off for you in greater comfort and convenience all the years you own the home—and then some.

Crusaders Run Into Storm

Clyde Ryder, member of the Oklahoma City school board, called for an end to the "crusade of the right" during a recent speech in Oklahoma City. Ryder described the crusade as a campaign to discredit the education system and to promote a conservative agenda. He called for a return to the principles of public education and to stop the efforts of those who are trying to undermine the educational system.

State Editors Say

The Future of the OMA

The Oklahoma Municipal Association (OMA) is facing a critical challenge in the coming years. As state funding for public education is cut, local governments are facing increased pressure to find ways to supplement their budgets. The OMA needs to work closely with local officials to develop strategies to ensure the vitality of public education in Oklahoma.

Thoughts

Billy Graham's Message

Billy Graham, one of the most influential Christian leaders of the 20th century, passed away on February 27, 2018. His message of hope and love for all people continues to inspire millions around the world. We need to continue to spread his message of love and compassion in a world that often feels divided and disconnected.

The PEOPLE'S Voice

Mummers

The Mummers, a traditional holiday celebration in Oklahoma City, is an event that brings together families and communities to celebrate the season. This year's Mummers was held on December 22, and it was a Success. Many families enjoyed the festive atmosphere and the chance to spend time together.

Inez Robb

Friends' Requests

The Oklahoma State Journal took note of the many requests for help from friends and neighbors. We are committed to doing whatever we can to assist those in need. As a community, let's work together to support one another and make Oklahoma a better place to live.

Jackie Off Her Pedestal?

A recent article in the Oklahoma State Journal discussed the possibility of a young woman taking on a leadership role in her community. It's important that we support and encourage young women to step up and lead in all areas of life.

Cartier's Capital

Sooner Time

The Oklahoma State Journal reported on the recent developments at Cartier's Capital, a business that provides financial services to the community. The company is expanding its operations and is looking to hire new employees to meet the growing demand.

End Social Ills, Union Chief Urges

The Oklahoma State Journal presented the views of a union chief who called for an end to social ills in Oklahoma. The chief argued that the state needs to address poverty, unemployment, and other issues that contribute to the social problems in the state.

Road Oil Bids Decline

The Oklahoma State Journal reported on the recent decline in road oil bids in Oklahoma. This is a significant development that could have implications for the state's budget and infrastructure. We need to continue to monitor this issue closely and work towards solutions that benefit all Oklahomans.
