FIRST OCTUPLETS BORN

By TERRY McLADD

OCTUPLETS BORN: mary, a baby weighing a total of 14.8 pounds, was born to the mother on Friday in a hospital in the first official octuplets in history. The mother, who already had four other children, delivered the eight babies within the same time period. The babies are all boys and have not yet been named. The hospital stated that the birth of the eight children has already been declared a medical marvel and that the mother is doing well.

The news may be hard to digest, but it doesn't taste that bad.
Judge Orders Jury Convened

This Week

Chairman of the Oklahoma City Bar Association, Judge John F. McGhee, on Monday ordered the jurors in the case of the estate of R.E. McQuiston, deceased, to meet on Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the courtroom of Judge McGhee.

The jury was ordered to appear at the courthouse at 9 a.m. and proceed to the courtroom of Judge McGhee where they will be sworn in and instructed by the judge.

Shippers Ordered To Resume Work

Local shippers have been ordered to resume work immediately. The order was issued by the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce following a meeting of the chamber's executive committee.

The order states that all local shippers must resume work immediately and that all shipping activities must be conducted in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

LBJ Gives Clark Victory Mandate

President Lyndon B. Johnson has given a victory mandate to Senator John F. Kennedy in the upcoming election. The mandate was issued following a meeting of the president with Senator Kennedy and other key members of the Democratic party.

The mandate states that Senator Kennedy must win the upcoming election and that all party members must support him.

Weather Word

A severe cold front is expected to move through the area on Monday, causing temperatures to drop to their lowest levels of the season. Residents are advised to dress warmly and to take precautions to protect against frostbite.

Weather forecasts indicate that the front will bring record-breaking cold temperatures, with wind chills expected to drop to below zero in some areas. Residents are advised to stay inside as much as possible and to avoid outdoor activities.
