J. Nelson Taylor

Oklahoma City's mayor, J. Nelson Taylor, has announced his intention to seek re-election in the upcoming May 15, 1955, primary election.

W. W. Brown

Mayor Brown is facing intense competition from several candidates, including John H. Johnson, who is seeking the Democratic nomination.

Kennedy Tells Indian Youths

The young people who were present at the speech, which was held at the Oklahoma School for Indians, were enthusiastic about Kennedy's message of hope and progress for American Indians.

Crash The Wall--Poverty

The phrase "Crash The Wall--Poverty" has been used in various contexts to call attention to the need for a more equitable distribution of resources and opportunities.

NORMAN-- "Crash the wall"--Poverty--has been a popular slogan in recent years. It emphasizes the need to "break down" the barriers that prevent people from achieving their full potential.

King, who was assassinated on April 4, 1968, was known for his work in civil rights and his fight against poverty.

"His words"--"Crash the wall"--Poverty--"have been powerful tools for change. They remind us of the struggle that still remains and the importance of working together to create a more just and equitable society."
