The Paper That Tells South Oklahomans
Newspapers Criticized
By Students

"The press is of the people, by the people, and for the people," George R. Foster, editor of the Princeton Daily Princetonian, said in a speech to the Student Government Association at the University of Michigan. Foster said that because of the student newspaper's lack of a publicistic relationship to the rest of the student body, it is "a means of inculcating in the student a distorted viewpoint of the world."

THE CITY OF MUNICH, GERMANY. Oct 23.--Stations of the police were set up in the immediate vicinity of the Nazi headquarters and the Gestapo headquarters, and in the immediate vicinity of the Nazi leader's residence. The police assume that the headquarters is a place where the Gestapo is trying to concentrate all the power of the state, and they have decided to break up the headquarters in the immediate vicinity of the Gestapo headquarters. The police are now in the process of evacuating people from the Gestapo headquarters, and they are expected to complete their evacuation before 8:00 a.m. tomorrow. The police are also evacuating people from the Nazi headquarters, and they are expected to complete their evacuation before 9:00 a.m. tomorrow.
