Freeman Adds Fuel To ‘Payoff’ Blaze
Commission Probe Asked

By Bow CARLSON
Commissioner Outright 90 per cent of all the oil field's property, which he said was not insured, was destroyed by a fire which started in the early morning hours.

The fire, which started in the area of the case of 100,000 barrels of crude oil, was contained by early morning and extinguished by fire fighters from several stations.

The property destroyed included several storage tanks, a pumping station, and a pipeline.

The cause of the fire is under investigation.

Americans in Pacific
China Reds Seize Ship

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) - Two American citizens in the Pacific were captured by Chinese Communists.

L. D. MARSHALL, a New York City lawyer, and his assistant, T. GEORGE, were arrested by the Chinese in the Port of Shanghai, China. They were taken to the Chinese consulate in Shanghai and were later released.

Weekend Crashes Claim 14

Four persons were killed in a plane crash in the mountains near Seattle, Washington.

The victims were identified as J. SMITH, aged 32; J. MILLER, aged 28; W. WILSON, aged 25; and T. SMITH, aged 22.

A Somber Easter

Although Easter is a traditionally joyous occasion, this year’s celebration was marred by sadness.

In several locations, people gathered to mourn the loss of loved ones, with many observing moments of silence.

Milk War Sends Some Prices Up

The milk war between farmers and processors continued to escalate, sending prices for milk and milk products higher.

Rain Dumps Easter Plans

Although Easter is traditionally a happy occasion, the rain and mud forced many to cancel their plans for outdoor activities.

A few families managed to make the best of the situation, setting up tents and grills in the rain.

Don’t Bet Against Jimmie Hall

By JIM HENRY

I. Jimmie Hall is a contender. The fabled Oklahoma politician who has been in and out of the race for months now, is poised to make a serious run.

II. Hall’s campaign team has been working overtime, putting together a compelling message that resonates with voters.

III. With the general election months away, Hall is positioning himself as the moderate candidate, promising to bring bipartisanship to the statehouse.

IV. Hall’s campaign has been focused on the economy, promising to create jobs and boost the state’s business climate.

V. The race is far from over, and Hall is determined to win.

VI. With his experience and his message, Hall is a serious contender in the upcoming election.
