'Fish' Claims Pay Off

The news of the capture of a 'fish' by a man named S. J. in Catoosa, Okla., is the talk of the town. The 'fish' was found to be a very large catfish, weighing over 50 pounds. The owner, a local fisherman, said he had been trying to catch a large fish for weeks, and finally succeeded. The fish was released back into the river.

State Editors Say

Too Many Probes Confuse Charges

State Editors have been criticizing the state's investigation into the murder of a local businessman. They argue that the multiple probes are causing confusion and wasting valuable resources. The editors call for a more focused and efficient investigation.

VEEP Reception Correct

The Vice President's visit to the state was met with mixed reactions. Some welcomed the opportunity to meet their leader, while others expressed concern about the cost and the impact on the local economy. The visit was marred by protests from various groups, and the security was tight.

Baptist Minister Drops Protest On Miami Beach

The Baptist Minister's protest against the use of Miami Beach by the U.S. Government has been dropped. The minister, who had been protesting the use of the beach by the military, said he was satisfied with the assurances given by the government that steps would be taken to ensure the rights of the public were protected.
