ACRES OF AIRCRAFT WERE ON DISPLAY AT TINKER AIR FORCE BASE SUNDAY AND DREW THOUSANDS OF SPECTATORS

Publics Great Show At Tinker

In VIRGIN WELCH

More than 180,000 spectators converged on Tinker Air Force Base yesterday afternoon to join in open house festivities commemorating the 25th anniversary of the mammoth installation.

The gates to the base were thrown open and one man to every foot of path leading in from the giant gate before the last opening was on hand to greet the throng.

And they stayed until after dark in time to see the final display of the mammoth installation.

On Ice

Maidenens, fashions, models and hockey teams make on-ice appearance in Oklahoma City. Models, who are featuring the Central Hockey League program's championship this week against the Boston Bruins, may have a chance to determine the title.

The Boston and Bruins keep at one game ahead in the Final Seconds of the season. However, the Fighting Irish will meet the Oklahoma City on 5 p.m. Tuesday. Friday and Saturday, the game will be played at the Armory. The models are: Sakura Fujiwara, Phyllis Harlan, Pam and Doris Watts, Doris Jones and Dean Pires. Red Rangers, Pat Gaffney, Norm and Dana Oates.
