PENAL REFORM ACT OF 1984

Agreement May Protect Warden

By Joe Carter

Agreement to place Warden Ronnie Wade of the Williston prison was another move taken last week by Florida prison officials to prevent further escapes being made in the crime-ridden state. The Florida State Penitentiary is the largest correctional facility in the state and one of the largest in the nation. The agreement comes to an end in a number of cases in which the warden was accused of covering up information about inmates who escaped from the prison. The agreement was made to prevent further escapes from the prison. The agreement comes as a result of the recent surge in inmate escapes from the prison. Jim Cutchin, a former football and basketball player at Oregon State, is showing promise of being a pitcher in the major leagues. He has been called up to the St. Louis Cardinals' spring training camp from the minor league club. Cutchin, 22, was drafted by the Cardinals in 1967 and has been working his way up through the ranks. White Sox second baseman Joe Rudi had three hits, including a two-run home run, as the White Sox defeated the Boston Red Sox, 5-2, at Comiskey Park. The Sox scored four runs in the first inning, highlighted by Rudi's home run, and held on for the victory.

Pittsburgh Pirates catcher John Candelaria hit a two-run home run in the ninth inning to give the Pirates a 4-3 win over the New York Mets. It was Candelaria's 12th home run of the season. The Pirates were leading 1-0 until the eighth inning when the Mets scored three runs.

Cub pitcher Bob Howsam allowed only two hits in eight innings, striking out five, and the Cubs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-3, at Wrigley Field. The Cubs scored four runs in the first inning, including a two-run home run by first baseman Ron Santo. The Cubs are now 14-11 on the season.

Chrysler's Profits Dip 70 Per Cent

DAVE TVER

ON FINDING STABILITY

A Warren stability plan for Chrysler, in effect, will go a long way toward solving the company's problems. But the new plan is only a first step. The company must work hard to improve its reputation and to gain the trust of the public. And it must also do a better job of managing its finances. Chrysler is in the midst of a crisis, and it must take steps to turn things around. The company must also be more transparent in its operations, and it must be more accountable to its investors. Chrysler must also be more responsive to the concerns of its employees. In the end, Chrysler must prove that it is a viable and successful company, and it must work hard to achieve that goal.
