Kelly Relives Plane History

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A former fighter pilot in the Korean War, on Sunday, March 5th, relived the events of the war in his book "The Sky at War."

The book, which chronicles his experiences as a fighter pilot, was published on Monday, March 6th, and is available for purchase online.

Kelly got a call from a friend who was flying over Vietnam when he saw the C-130 transport plane that was hit by SAMs. The friend said it was a very close call, and that he was lucky to be alive.

Kelly told the friend, "We were under fire, and I was in the middle of a SAM attack. I knew I was going to be hit, but I just kept flying."

Kelly said he never thought about giving up, even when the SAMs were close. He knew he had to keep flying, and that was what he did.

Kelly said he was proud of his service in the Korean War, and he was glad to be able to relive his experiences in his book. He said he hoped it would inspire others to follow in his footsteps.

Kelly's book, "The Sky at War," is available for purchase online, and is available in both print and digital formats.

Horse Show Riding Fashions Range
From Formal Attire To Western

By Howard Alley
Western Editor

Fashion tips are an important part of the Oklahoma City Civic Center Horse Show. Each year, a new look is introduced to keep the Western fashions that have become popular over the years. This year, the Junior category has added Western fashions to its repertoire in a bid to attract more young riders.

Getting their riding clothes ready for the show, set for March 20-21, are Miss Tulsa, Myra B. Riggs, and Miss Oklahoma, Margaret C. Smith. Miss Tulsa, who is also the Western award winner, will be riding in the Junior category.

The Horse Show, which is scheduled for March 20-21, will feature a variety of Western fashions, including suits, shirts, and hats. In addition, there will be a special section for junior riders.

Juniors will be able to choose from a variety of Western-like suits and shirts, including denim jackets and jeans. The Western suits will be available in both boys' and girls' sizes, and the shirts will be available in both single- and double-breasted styles.
