Close Games

American Legion Tournament Set

Nineteen schools were scheduled to take part in the American Legion Tournament which begins Friday in Grant County. The single-elimination tourney will be held at St. Paul and Adair. Games will be played Friday and run through Sunday.

Close games were the order of the day in the high school game between the Nineteen and Adair Niners which a 6-4 win for Nineteen.

The Niners, who played without Calvin Scott, who is out with an injury, were led by Don Anderson, ace hurler, with 15 strikeouts. He also drove in four runs.

The AHS Niners, led by Don Trammel, scored two runs in the top of the seventh inning to break a 6-4 tie and win.

NHHS Postponed

The Nineteen-New Harmony Post 291 game was postponed due to rain. The game is scheduled for Saturday.

Bill Wilson of New Harmony pitched well and should have been the winning pitcher had the game been completed Friday.

O'Cain Postponed

The Nineteen-O'Cain, St. Petersburg game was also postponed due to rain.

Steelers Football

Steelers take the field for the first time today for the start of the annual football camp. The camp is scheduled to run until Aug. 10.

Tom Wright

A New Era

Tom Wright joins the Oklahoma State University sports information staff as the new sports information director.

Wright comes from Oklahoma City University where he served as sports information director.

He replaces Paul Fris, who resigned after a two-year stint.

Wright, a native of Oklahoma City, was a two-year letterman in football, basketball and baseball at Oklahoma City University. He was also a member of the All-South Plains Conference basketball and baseball teams.

Wright's first job was with the Oklahoma City Thunder, the original minor league baseball team in Oklahoma City.
