2-Story Fall Hurts Samaritan

Man Takes ‘Fall’ For Squirrel

By PAUL BUCK

Clark Scott, 21, became a footnote in the annals of Oklahoma City fire safety on Wednesday when a squirrel started a fire that burned his car.

Clark, who was visiting a friend on the east side of the city, said he was parked next to a tree in front of the house, when he heard a squirrel startle nearby.

“Then I saw a red light come out of the car,” he said. “I went to check on it and found a squirrel had caused the fire.”

Clark was able to extinguish the blaze before it spread to other vehicles.

Surcharge Tax Hike Predicted

HARRIS RECEIVES GEOLOGY LESSON

By VINEY WILKIN

The government is expected to raise taxes in Oklahoma by $5 billion in the next fiscal year, according to a report released Monday by State Comptroller Bob Harris.

The report, which is based on projections of revenue and expenses for the coming year, estimates that the state will need to increase taxes by $5 billion to balance the budget.

Vice President Idell Brown is expected to sign the bill into law before it is due to take effect on July 1.

Rain, Hail Hit State

VIOLET spring weather raised across parts of Oklah- oma this week, with hail and thunderstorms reported in some areas.

The storms were triggered by a warm front moving through the state, which brought high temperatures and low pressure systems.

At least one person was injured in a hailstorm in the Tulsa area on Tuesday, while a vehicle was damaged in a thunderstorm in the Oklahoma City area on Wednesday.

Bud Lister Irked At Fair’s Board

BRINGING UP FATHER

BILL KRAVCHIK & FRANK FRYER

The story of Ollie and his son, Jimmy, and the adventures they have together.

Bugs Bunny

I want to see Bugs. He's so funny. He's talking about it all week. Let's do it on Friday.

At this point, I can't afford it, but I'll have enough money in a few weeks. They'll be calling ya, Ollie. Thanks.

Here's a $10,000 bill. I'm here until I get it back.

Say hello to my pal, Dewey. He's the best. He's the one I want to see on Friday.

Bring it on, Bugs. You'll be in a lot of trouble if you don't get this done.

It's a lot of trouble, but you can't buy a place like this. I don't know what to do. I just don't know what to do.

It's a lot of trouble, but you can't buy a place like this. I don't know what to do. I just don't know what to do.
