Morgan's Nostalgic Journey To A Strip Joint In Mexico

Casper Leads Field In Oklahoma City Open

FUN GUIDE
Visit To A Mexican Strip Joint

By HUGH MORGAN

JUNIPER, New Mexico — "It's the season..."

Flo Maggino had been there.

And the beat at the Chez Lina on the Pan American Highway — take it from the twirled they-shediches — was snug. The glasses had been tilted, the bottle of absinthe was cold. And the girls had been Slim Shady.

But there was something more. There was a sense of excitement, the kind that comes with the anticipation of something new. Something that was about to happen.

The atmosphere was palpable. It was like a smell in the air, something that had been brewing for a while. And the girls were ready.
