'America Is Not Washington'
Hollomon Tells Why He's Coming To OU

By REBECCA HOLLOMON
Dr. Robert Hollomon, dean of the University of Oklahoma, received a warm and enthusiastic response Monday evening when he addressed the assembly at the Student Union auditorium.

Dr. Hollomon, who is a former president of the University of Chicago, spoke on the topic of "The Future of Higher Education." He discussed the challenges facing higher education institutions, including funding, enrollment, and the impact of technology on education.

"We must work together to ensure that higher education remains accessible to all students," Dr. Hollomon said. "We must also be innovative in our approach to teaching and learning."

READY TO RIDE

Off the floor, the jockeys are looking forward to a big week. "I'm looking forward to it," says Pete Smith. "I've been practicing and I'm ready." The jockeys are excited about the upcoming horse show and are preparing for the competition. The show is scheduled for next week and will feature a variety of horse events. The audience is expected to enjoy the show, which will include horse races, equestrian competitions, and demonstrations. The event is free to the public and will be held at the local horse fairgrounds. The organizers have worked hard to make sure that the show is safe and enjoyable for all participants and spectators. The weather forecast is good for the upcoming show, and the organizers are looking forward to a successful event. For more information, please visit the official website or contact the organizers directly.
