SYRIA REPORTS NEW ATTACK

By JOHN TAYLOR

The Athens Constitution reported Friday night that the Syrian army, which has been active in the region, has launched a new attack, reportedly targeting the Israeli-occupied Golan Heights. The report claimed that Syrian forces had crossed into Israeli-controlled territory and that the Israeli military had responded with air strikes. The attack came amid tensions between the two nations, with Syria and Israel having engaged in several border clashes in recent weeks.

Twisters DIP

Weather radar detected a small tornado just outside of Oklahoma City on Saturday evening. The tornado, which had winds of up to 60 mph, touched down for a short time near the northwest corner of the city, causing minor damage to a few homes.

The Inside News

Panel Eyes Chairman’s ‘Conflicts’

By BILL DUNCAN

The Oklahoma County Commission is set to review a proposal to appoint a new commission chairman. The proposal, which was brought forward by Commissioner Joe Gidde, is facing opposition from some members of the commission, who have raised concerns about potential conflicts of interest.

Mobs Roar, Ask Nasser to Stay On

By VIRGIL WILDEY

Thousands of protesters gathered in downtown Oklahoma City on Saturday to demand the resignation of President Gamal Abdul Nasser of Egypt. The demonstration was one of many across the Middle East and North Africa, as people expressed their dissatisfaction with Nasser’s policies and the Egyptian regime.

Toll In Ship Attacks May Climb To 33

By WASHINGTON bureau

The number of ship attacks in the Gulf of Aden has risen sharply in recent weeks, according to the International Maritime Organization (IMO). The organization has called on all flag states to increase their anti-piracy efforts and to cooperate more closely with the International Maritime Bureau (IMB) to prevent further incidents.

The Last Word

For U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger’s visit to the Middle East, the administration is considering a range of options, including economic sanctions and military options. The goal is to pressure Syria and Iraq into dismantling their nuclear programs.

Cityian, Innocent Of Wife’s Death

By NELSON TAYLOR

A man was found dead in his home on Friday afternoon, and authorities are investigating the case as a possible murder. The victim, a long-time resident of the neighborhood, was last seen alive on Thursday evening.

GROUNDS

The Oklahoma County Commission is considering a proposal to build a new park in the northwest corner of the city. The proposal, which was brought forward by Commissioner Joe Gidde, is facing opposition from some members of the commission, who have raised concerns about potential conflicts of interest.

T-Bird Killed At Guard Camp

A tragic incident occurred at a military base in the north of the country, killing a T-Bird, a type of high-speed jet. Investigations are ongoing to determine the cause of the crash. The T-Bird was on a routine training flight when it suddenly lost control and crashed into a nearby residential area. The pilot was unable to eject and was killed in the crash. The investigation will focus on mechanical failures and human error.
