They Were Nice Girls'
Stroud Shot By Brutal Killings

By MANDEL MATHESON

Stroud—One of the residents of Stroud was court-martialed last week and found guilty of murder.

There was a trial of a man in the United States Army at Stroud, Okla., last week. The man was charged with murder and found guilty. He was sentenced to 30 years in prison.

"My daughter was nice," said the man's mother, "but I don't believe she was guilty. She was a good girl and she loved her country." The man's mother had written a letter to the judge expressing her opinion of the case. The judge had read the letter and had praised the man's mother for her courage and her love for her country.

"I don't believe she was guilty," the man's mother had written. "I know she loved her country and I know she was a good girl. I wish I could have saved her, but I couldn't." The judge had been moved by the letter and had said that the man's mother had a good heart.

The man was sentenced to 30 years in prison and was taken to the maximum security prison in Atlanta, Ga.

Arabs' Death Toll Severe

From al-Jazeera.net

The Jammash Советее Сорусае was the first attack and specific casualty report from the area. The Jammash Советее Сорусае is a terrorist organization that uses suicide bombings and other methods to carry out attacks. The Jammash Советее Сорусае has been responsible for many attacks in the past.

According to the report, two suicide bombers have been killed in the attack. The report also says that the attack was carried out by a group of armed men.

The Arab security force has announced a military operation to target the Jammash Советее Сорусае. The operation is aimed at disrupting the organization's activities and preventing future attacks.

Sisters Slain, Clues Sought

Sisters, whose ages are unknown, were found murdered in a rural area in the town of Okemah, Okla., on Friday.

A man was found dead in a rural area near the town of Okemah, Okla., on Friday. The man was found in a car that was burning.

"We were surprised to find a body in a car," said Okemah Police Chief Ken Curfman. "We are not sure if the body is connected to the sister's death."

Anyone with information is asked to call the police department at 306-2626.

Tornado, Hail Pound Stroud

Two tornadoes ripped through Stroud early Tuesday, March 19, causing significant damage to homes, trees, and power lines.

One tornado touched down near Stroud and caused minor damage to a house and power lines. The other tornado touched down near Stroud and caused major damage to homes and power lines.

The National Weather Service is investigating the tornadoes.

Twister Damage

One house in the suburb of Stroud sustained minor damage to the roof and siding. Another house in the suburb of Stroud lost its roof, siding, and windows.

"We were not prepared for a tornado," said the homeowner of the house that lost its roof. "I had just finished painting the house and it was still wet."

The homeowner said that he had not heard any sirens or warnings before the tornado hit.

"I heard a loud noise and then I saw the tornado," said the homeowner. "I didn't have time to do anything."

The homeowner and his family were unharmed.

"We are just glad that we were not hurt," said the homeowner. "We will just have to start over."
