Chandler Overturns Case On Sixth Appeal

By HUGH MORRISON

After nine years in prison on a murder charge, Paul H. Jurek, 40, of Oklahoma City, now has his case set for trial on Wednesday.

The United States Supreme Court in an order Sunday evening reversed the Missouri Superior Court's decision that Jurek could be tried on the murder charge.

Jurek was found guilty in a Missouri Superior Court in March 1952 and sentenced to 30 years in the Missouri State Penitentiary.

The government announced the withdrawal of the trial last summer, and the death sentence was overturned.

Jurek, a former Oklahoma City police officer, was arrested in 1951 in connection with the slaying of a man in a restaurant.

Jurek was convicted in 1952 and sentenced to 30 years in prison.

Jurek's case is one of many in which the Supreme Court has overturned convictions.

The Supreme Court has overturned a number of convictions in recent years, including those of Jurek, but it has also upheld convictions.

The court has ruled that the use of peremptory strikes to challenge jurors based on race is unconstitutional.

The Supreme Court has also ruled that the use of peremptory strikes to challenge jurors based on race is unconstitutional.

Peggy's Book Corner

By Peggy Oosten

The 4th is coming up, so I'm planning to make some Fourth of July recipes. I've always enjoyed making a delicious cherry pie for the holiday, and this year I'm thinking of trying a new apple pie recipe. I've also been thinking about making some homemade ice cream, as it's one of my favorite summer treats. I think I'll try a recipe for strawberry ice cream, as the berries are in season now. Finally, I'm planning to make some delicious potato chips using a recipe I found in a cookbook. I think they'll be the perfect snack for the holiday.
