The Paper That Tells Both Sides

OKLAHOMA CITY

One man was killed and four others were wounded in an explosion at the Oklahoma City post office. The blast occurred just as the mail was being delivered. One of the victims, a postal worker, was killed instantly. The other three were伤者 were taken to the hospital but their condition is unknown. The explosion was caused by a bomb that was placed in a bag at the post office.

San Juan, P.R. (UPI)— Puerto Rico authorities yesterday charged several people with participating in the bombing of a government building in San Juan. The authorities said that the bomb contained dynamite and was placed in the building during the night. The building was severely damaged and several people were injured in the explosion. The bomb was believed to be a protest against the government's policies.

The results of the bombing caused a lot of panic and anger among the people. The police were hard at work trying to determine the identity of the perpetrators and to stop similar incidents from happening again. The government was also quick to condemn the act and vowed to bring those responsible to justice.

Puerto Rico Keeps U.S. Status

By DON DAVIS

An appeal was filed by the Puerto Rican people yesterday against the U.S. government's decision to keep Puerto Rico's status as a commonwealth. The appeal was filed by the governor of Puerto Rico, who argued that the decision was unconstitutional and violated the rights of the Puerto Rican people.

The appeal stated that the decision to keep Puerto Rico's status as a commonwealth was a violation of the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The governor argued that the people of Puerto Rico should be given the right to self-determination and the opportunity to choose their own future.

The appeal was filed to the U.S. Supreme Court, which will decide whether to hear the case. If the case is heard, it could have significant implications for Puerto Rico and the status of the island in the U.S. territory.

Riot ‘Terror’ Hits Detroit; Guard Called

By JOSEPH MARX

Blades 800 feet into the air at a ‘Terror’ bomb, a young Detroit citizen today said he had seen a bomb that he believes killed 40 people during a movie stunt performed by the ‘Terror’ gang.

The ‘Terror’ group, said Marx, was a large-scale operation organized by the late ‘Terror’ mastermind. The group had been operating in the area for several weeks, he said, and had been responsible for several explosions and bombings. The ‘Terror’ bomb, he said, was a large device that had been placed in a building and set off by a timer.

The group had been acting under the orders of the late ‘Terror’ mastermind, who had been killed in a gunfight with the police.

In Paris It's 'Vive Mexico'

BY VUYTE DE LA FONTAINE

Paris 1947—His color, his humble costume, and his innocent eyes are what make "La Ruche Mexicaine" so appealing to Parisian Parisian Parisians.

The long and short of the Mexican look, interpreted by Pierre Dastal of Paris.

Exploring the essence of Mexican-inspired clothes, designer Dastal says that it is the "formula"-common tailor-made, simple cut, plain necklines, and earthy materials. "Just when their odor is most pronounced, the strong appeal of the young" is "very like Mexico, but almost everywhere, gay colors, embroidery, and trims are the style of the present." Dastal remarks. "It is a very pretty way of expressing their reactions against the sheltered, sequestered, built-in, and vicious life of their fashionable mothers." He has one and a half inches of "Mexican mood...simple styling, hot colors make up mood recently discovered in Paris.
