Detroit Mayor Seeks Riot Squads

Romney Fears 'Guerrilla War'

BY HOWARD FIELD

DETROIT (UPI) - Governor George Romney said today that he was 'very worried' about the increasing violence in Detroit.

"This is the worst I've ever seen," he said.

The Governor said that he was closely monitoring the situation and that he would take any necessary steps to maintain order.

"We cannot let violence escalate," he said. "We must act quickly to prevent further bloodshed."

McNamara’s Reserve Error

The war is that there are still the US forces remaining there put into the charge of General Westmoreland. As I write this, a Cabinet meeting is proceeding in Washington where the military leaders are being consulted. I am informed that the US forces there number 150,000 with a supporting strength of about 300,000. If the US goes out of Vietnam, it means that the whole region will be left to the communists and the South Vietnamese would be likely to fall to the North Vietnamese communists, who are afraid of the US.

The people in the US who are watching the war are very, very watched by the people in the US who are watching the war. They are very afraid of the communists, who are afraid of the US. If the US goes out of Vietnam, it means that the whole region will be left to the communists.
