Held At Gunpoint 2 Hours
Deputy Captures Captor

A deputy sheriff was held at gunpoint near the county line as he tried to serve a arrest warrant on a suspect wanted in connection with a murder.

The suspect, James Morris, was reportedly posing as a security guard when the deputy, Detective John Thompson, arrived at the scene.

"I was walking up to the door when all of a sudden, he pulled a gun," Thompson said.

Thompson says he was surprised and then used his taser to subdue the suspect.

"I was able to get him to the floor and then we were able to get him into custody," Thompson said.

The suspect is currently in custody awaiting an appearance in court.
