Reward Fund Started In Lost Girl Case

By DON DAVIS

A Midwest City police group will meet with police Wednesday in Dallas to discuss the disappearance of 12-year-old Brenda Jones, who disappeared Aug. 26 in the "co-op" section of that community.

In an effort to raise funds for the search, the Midwest City Police Department, Techies and Friends, Inc., have arranged for a meeting to be held at the Oklahoma City Plantation, 1111 S. Reno.

Brenda is described as being 4 feet 10 inches tall, weighing 100 pounds, with brown hair and eyes. She was last seen wearing a brown dress, blue coat, brown and white shoes and carrying a purse.

Brenda’s disappearance is under the investigation of the Midwest City Police Department.

Four Waiting On Death Row

By L. B. WOOD

Ten years ago, the State penitentiary at McAlester was the site of a death sentence.

One of them, Howard O. Clark, now a seven-year-old child of McAlester, was executed after being convicted of murder. The other was convicted of rape.

The death sentence was levied against two men for the murder of a man in McAlester. The other was convicted of rape.
