Racial Issue: A New Look

WASHINGTON (CNS) — Michigan Gov. George Romney, the Senate's leading Republican on civil rights legislation, said Monday that he would not support a Senate version of the bill. Some other Republicans have said they would vote against it because of the Senate's provisions for a balance of race relations.

State Stands To Be The Loser

In the past few days, the news from Washington has been filled with reports of the possible passage of a bill that would provide funds for the construction of a new state capital. This bill has been the subject of much debate in the state legislature, with proponents arguing that it will boost the local economy and improve the quality of life for residents in the new capital.
