Morse To Ask Tonkin Repeal

The New York Times

WASHINGTON— Vietnamese Prime Minister Pham Van Dong Tuesday will again move to repeal the 1960 Gulf of Tonkin resolution authorizing American forces to take part in the Vietnam war. Morse stated that the resolution was no longer relevant and that it should be scrapped. The resolution was enacted in 1960 after the Vietnam conflict began.

The resolution, which was passed by a vote of 413-0 in the House and 88-1 in the Senate, gave the President the power to use military force in Vietnam.

Morse said the resolution was a "clear violation of the Constitution" and that it was "an affront to the people of the United States and to the people of Vietnam.

According to Morse, the resolution was passed "on the basis of false information and without any regard for the rights of the Vietnamese people.
