Singer Denounces Violence

Brown's Fans Dance In Aisles

by JAMES BROWN

In a backstage interview, Brown transformed from the warm, easygoing type of performer, into a powerful, hard-hitting artist who can express his feelings through music.

"To me, it's a chance to learn, to reach out to the audience and touch them profoundly. I want them to feel the power of my music, the impact of my words, and the passion of my performance."

Brown's fans have embraced this new phase of his career, dancing enthusiastically to his new songs and leaving behind the old ways of simply listening to music. "I want to be a leader in the movement for change," Brown declares. "I want to inspire others to rise up and take control of their own lives."

WORLD SAMPLERS AIRMEN CLUB CELEBRATES 2ND ANNIVERSARY

They Said It Couldn't Be Done...
SAMPLERS RETURN TO ORIENT

SAMPLERS AT NAICHEN NATIONAL PARK LAST YEAR

SWITZERLAND AND AUSTRIA
A TOUR WITH SAMPLERS

The Swiss Alps and nearby Lake Geneva are just two of the sights seen by the Samplers on their recent tour of Switzerland and Austria. On the tour, the Samplers also traveled to Salzburg and Vienna. They found the Swiss Alps a perfect place for hiking and the lively city of Zurich a perfect place for shopping.

Switzerland was the first stop on the tour. The Samplers spent four days in the land of the Swiss and were able to see many of the country's famous sights, including the Matterhorn and the Jungfraujoch. The tour also included a visit to the city of Lucerne, where the Samplers were able to see the famous Lion Monument.

After leaving Switzerland, the Samplers traveled to Austria and spent three days in the country. They enjoyed seeing the country's beautiful scenery and the many historic sites, including the city of Innsbruck, which is known for its medieval architecture and its role as the host of the Winter Olympics.

The tour ended with a visit to Vienna, where the Samplers were able to see many of the city's famous landmarks, including the Hofburg Palace and the Schönbrunn Palace.

SEE MORE!

World Sampler members are back from their trip to Europe, Africa and Asia. This trip was made possible by the Oklahoma City Audubon Society and the World Sampler Club. Members visited 22 countries, traveled over 20,000 miles and enjoyed the beauty and culture of each place.

The Eiffel Tower in Paris

The Library of Congress in Washington, D.C.

A pagoda in Tokyo

One of the many beautiful churches in Italy.

One of the many markets in Japan

Above, World Sampler members follow the path through the Japanese gardens in Tokyo. They checked out various sites and took in the beauty of nature.
