School's First Day One For The Books

By JOHNNY MARTIN

Senior Editor

This marks the 1st school day for Osage students. Classes started at 9始时 and registrations began with the office of the registrar.

LUV Lost On Bantams

By B. B. C. ALSTON

LUV, the beloved Osage turkey, was lost on the 1st day of school. The bird was killed by a flock of ducks. The ducks killed the bird and carried it away. The school principal was upset and said that the bird was a big loss for the school.

He Won't Sign Right-Work Petition

By BILL ANDERSON

Principal J. R. Secor refused to sign the petition calling for a 1-day strike. The petition was signed by the faculty and the principal was asked to sign it.

Teacher Halts Threatened Across U.S.

Curtis P. Harris

The elementary school system across the nation is under threat. The National Education Association is demanding better teacher salaries and conditions.

Only Fifty Pupils Ask Transfers

By D. J. NEILSON

Only 50 students asked to be transferred to another school. The school district is under financial strain and is trying to cut costs. The transfer request is resulting in a shortage of teachers.

Officer Called Killer

By B. B. C. ALSTON

The Osage police have arrested a suspect in the murder of a teacher. The suspect is charged with first-degree murder and is being held without bond.

Viet Vote Aftermath

Possible Peace Moves Reported

By JOHNNY MARTIN

After the vote, peace talks began between the Vietnam and United States governments. The talks are aimed at bringing an end to the war.

Journal Sweepstakes

* Get In On The 'Lucky' Star Program

This is the new feature of The Oklahoma Journal Sweepstakes program and it appears ONLY in today's Oklahoma Journal.

Here's how it works: Only the leading merchants participating in The Oklahoma Journal Sweepstakes program which is listed in the newspaper. Each of the leading merchants that have signed up for the 'Lucky Star' program will advertise the 'Lucky Star' program in their newspapers. The 'Lucky Star' program is designed to help consumers find the leading merchants that have signed up for the 'Lucky Star' program.

Participating merchants have agreed to the following rules:

1. All prizes will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.
2. The leading merchant in each category will select the winners.
3. The leading merchant in each category will choose the winners based on the number of entries received.
4. All prizes will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.
5. The leading merchant in each category will choose the winners based on the number of entries received.

The Oklahoma Journal sweepstakes winners are selected by the leading merchants in each category.

Ten-R-Aged Beef

Aged naturally...that's the secret of really good beef, the kind that melts in your mouth and just the aroma makes you hungry for more. This is what you get in Humpky's Ten-R-Aged beef...the most tasty, juiciest...most tender beef you can buy! Exclusively at Humpky Dumpty!

STANDING RIB ROAST OF BEEF
Select a 3 or 4-lb. Tender-R-Aged Standing Rib Roast. Place fat side up in roasting pan. Season with salt and pepper. Insert meat thermometer so tip reaches center of thickest muscle. Place in slow oven (325°). Do not add water, do not cover.

Roast to desired degree of doneness. Allow 20 to 22 minutes per pound for rare roast, 24 to 27 minutes per pound for medium and 29 to 32 minutes per pound for well-done roast. Meat thermometer will read 140° for rare, 160° for medium, 170° for well-done beef. Count on 2 to 3 servings per pound of meat.
