Finley Wants To Move A's To Coast?

Embroided Owner Fights Battle With Players

NEW YORK— Under a newspaper story headlined, "A's Can't Pay Salaries," baseball owner Charles Finley today announced that he has purchased the rights to the San Francisco A's from the A's owner, a Southern California parking lot operator, for a reported $5 million. The purchase is made under the assumption that the A's will not pay the players salaries for the upcoming season and that the new owner will pay them. Finley's plan is to move the team to Oakland, Calif., where he has a sports arena and a stadium already constructed for the purpose. The move would be made in time for the start of the 1962 season.

HARTFORD, Conn.— The Hartford Merchants, a minor league baseball team, were defeated by the New London Nor'easters, 3-1, in the first game of their three-game series. The Merchants are managed by former major league catcher Bill Freehan, who was played for the Detroit Tigers and the Los Angeles Dodgers. Freehan was a three-time All-Star and won a World Series with the Tigers in 1968. He is now in his second season as manager of the Merchants.

BROOKLYN, N.Y.— The Brooklyn Dodgers, the defending National League champions, announced today that they have signed free agent pitcher Bob Feller to a two-year contract. Feller, who was released by the Cleveland Indians earlier in the year, will join the Dodgers in time for the start of the 1962 season. Feller, a 12-time All-Star, pitched for the Indians from 1940 to 1960, winning 226 games and striking out 2,887 batters in his career. He retired in 1960 and has since worked as a television and radio commentator.
