Two City Men Arrested

Football 'Bookies' Raided

Two Oklahoma City men were arrested on the eve of the opening of the college football season Friday, with charging with maintaining a football gambling parlor. The two men were among those arrested at a gambling parlor in Oklahoma City that was raided by police. The police said the two men were operating a bookmaking business out of their parlor.

Cloak-And-Dagger Firing

The firing of Ralph Baker on the state highway patrol was a blow to the law enforcement community. It was a stunning development that showed the limits of transparency and accountability in the agency.

But the firing was not the only incident that raised questions about the state's law enforcement agencies. The incident highlighted the need for greater oversight and accountability in the criminal justice system.

U.R. Officials Should Clear Air

A cloud of smoke is hanging over the state's rail system. It's time for the governor to address the issue and clear the air.

The governor needs to take action to ensure that the state's rail system is safe and reliable. This is not just an issue of public safety, but also a matter of economic development.

Luxuriate in New Depths of Comfort with Berkline’s Massive, Poly-Foam Cushioned “EASY LIFE” DEN GROUP in Textured Duran

The overstuffed look returns in Spanish Contemporary! And everyone’s wild about Berkline’s version of this important home fashion trend for more reasons than one. Sit down for a moment and you’ll understand why. Not in years has furniture offered this kind of comfort! In a sofa so totally carefree and easy to afford. Attached back and seat cushions are channeled with lavish depths of polyurethane foam. The rolled arms are big, broad and well padded. Then good-looking, textured covering is not leather. It’s Masland Duran, a super-strong, reinforced vinyl you need to worry about sitting—just wipe it clean with a damp cloth.

Open Today 9 til 9! Open Sunday 1 til 7!

Let EVANS help you create your HOME in Spanish! Thrilling with vibrant excitement, this soaring new trend in home decorating now looks toward Spain. Here, presented for all those of us with a natural fondness for the formal and tasteful functional fancies, blended in the fashionable mood of Spain. You’ll have a very special accolade for the dramatic and unusual Spanish collection you’ll find at EVANS...and all at EVANS excepting satisfying prices.

Elegant Spanish Translation

Cordoba, city of Spain, where Moorish and Romanesque cultures met and mingled to give birth to some of the finest examples of Spanish art. It’s an appropriate name for this exclusive new collection of EVANS. Each piece is generously proportioned, shockingly rich in detail. Hand-polished solids and veneers with a finish, distressed and final. Richly ornamented paintings, overlays capture the essence of Spain. Boldly colored and enameled carrying cases are of Cordoba design. Drawers are centered, guides to glide in and out effortlessly; shaker door is deep and substantial storage drawer. Magnificent, “Cordoba” exudes a timeless and graceful beauty to your decor.

REAL INDIANS

Used In Chaparral

The Hi-Chaparral, a Western series featuring a cast of Indian characters, has been using authentic Native Americans for its special effects and stunt work. The show's producer, Larry Swartz, recently hired a group of Cherokee Indians to perform various roles on the set, hoping to add authenticity and cultural accuracy to the show. Swartz believes that using real Indians for the show will not only enhance the show's realism but also help preserve the culture of the Native Americans.

Youth Movement Set In 'My Three Sons'

The theme of youth and rebellion is the central focus of the upcoming episode of 'My Three Sons.' The episode features the character of Tim, played by Timmy Reynolds, who decides to run away from home in protest against his father's strict rules. This move is a reflection of the growing youth movement of the 1960s, where teenagers sought to make their own decisions and challenge authority.

Wonderful Wizard Back With Fun For Everyone

Sylvania announces a Special Sale for Rich People.

These preposterously elegant 1967 Sylvania Stereo and Color TV models (abounding with all kinds of electronic glitz) are the most. They're so loaded with luxury that they take at least 3 healthy men to carry one. So grandiose that they're taking up a lot of space we need for the new Sylvania line for '67. (Which includes a lot of little low-priced models for the needy.)

So something has to go. What gives is the prices. We lowered the prices so much that now almost any run-of-the-mill rich guy can afford one. It's a great opportunity to save a lot of money, if you can afford to.

Gimmicks To Down That Flying Nun?

- "The Flying Nun" is a 1967 American television series that aired on NBC and was produced by Dino De Laurentiis for De Laurentiis Productions. It starred Barbara Feldon as Sister Ann, a nun who had the ability to fly.

- The show was a ratings success for NBC, but it faced criticism for its portrayal of nuns. The show was also accused of being too tame for its time, with critics saying that it was not as dark or intellectually stimulating as some other shows of the era.

- The show's success led to a film adaptation, "The Flying Nun" (1967), which was released in 1966.
