'Crooks On The Take Who'll Kill A Black Man For Running A Red Light'

Police Symbol Of Oppression To Negroes In America

By HUBERT J. McWHERT

The flash of a red light. They seem to mean little. But to the black man who knows what a red light means, the meaning is more than that. It may be the end of life, he may think, if he tries to cross the street.

This is the story of a man who tried to cross the street.

The man was a Negro. He was about 25 years old. He was walking down the street when he saw a red light. He looked at the light and saw that it was red. He began to cross the street. As he crossed the street, he was shot. He died.

The man was killed because he was a Negro. The red light meant nothing to him. He just walked across the street.

The police investigated the murder. They found that the man was killed by a group of white men. The police also found that the man was killed for no reason. They found that the man was killed because he was a Negro.

The police report was sent to the District Attorney. The District Attorney said that there was no evidence to convict anyone of murder.

The police then went to the District Attorney and asked him to charge the men with murder. The District Attorney said that he could not charge them with murder because there was no evidence.

Great Spanish Design for Young Budgets...
Three-piece Spanish Bedroom!

Take the most beautifully grained woods that you can find, spend weeks to make them into a teakwood, golden brown, then if you know the secret expert in old-world look of having been treasured for ages. These things accomplished, you would have the bare beginnings of furniture as lovely as "Bedford!" The design is splendid, enhanced with rhythmic swirl and scroll in the framework paneling; the style will be a continuing joy for years because of the solid wood construction.
