'Pike Takeover Plan Studied

Present System Lacks Safeguards, Officials Feel

By J. NELSON TAYLOR

City councilmen, fearing catastrophic losses if city officials fail to act, held a special meeting Tuesday to consider a plan for the sale of city-owned property to a private company.

City officials hope to have the competitive requesting a sale and proposal within a few weeks.

The present system lacks sufficient safeguards for the public.

They have indicated they want to use the job right now and are as great a hurry.

Mrs. J. M. Lancaster, president of the municipal council, said she did not feel the city could afford to lose the property to a private company.

The councilmen agreed to have a revised plan presented at a special meeting next week.

The city council is expected to vote on the plan at its next meeting.
