Houses With Sex Appeal

Difficult as it is to believe, there are some men who are not exactly earthbound.

Few, indeed, realize their sexual potential and possibly they should. In the case of Miss Anna-Mae Lohr, of Oklahoma City, this is definitely not the case. As the Red Rose Journal, in an article last week, reported, she is not only a beautiful beauty, but a beauty with brains as well.

In her home, which has a large private garden, she entertains by giving her guests a tour of the property, accompanied by a thorough explanation of the plants and flowers. This is followed by a light refreshment, after which the guests are invited to spend the night in one of the beautifully furnished bedrooms.

In the latter, a variety of books and magazines are available, along with a selection of cooked foods. The rooms are also equipped with a refrigerator and a telephone. The guests are encouraged to relax and enjoy themselves.

Today's Prayer

The Mood Of The President

By THOMAS E. McNEAL

The President's mood this week is one of confidence and determination. He is working hard to ensure the success of his administration. In his weekly radio address, he emphasized the importance of unity and cooperation among all Americans.

There are some signs of opposition, but the President remains optimistic. He is determined to see his program through to completion. He has called for a strong and united front to face the challenges of the future.
