School Mourning

"He is," the president of Southeastern College said, "a member of the graduating class and a good student. He was loved by all." The students of the school were shocked and saddened by the news of the death of their friend and fellow student. The school was in mourning, and the entire community was in a state of shock.

who did the job, "undiscovered"

The body was found in the dormitory, and the investigation is ongoing. The police are appealing to anyone who may have information about the circumstances surrounding the death to come forward.

Public Hearing Due Nov. 21 On New Law

Minimum Housing Action Delayed

Appointments approved by the secretary of the Housing Department in regard to an FHA project for the five-story All-Race Apartments, 1300-1302 Delaware Ave., for which the FHA has already provided a loan, indicate that the project will be delayed. The current FHA loan is less than $2 million, but the city has already agreed to provide an additional $500,000 upon approval of the project. The project is not yet in the final planning stages, so no definite dates can be given for completion. The project will be undertaken by the city's Housing Department, which will provide the necessary funds for the project.
