The Greeks Have A Name For It...

ΜΠΑΚΛΑΒΑ'

BAKLAVA

′Baklava′

By Patricia Whelan
Women′s Editor

The printing of Greek pastries from honey and spices, jealous of its secrets, and to ensure their survival, the introduction of the art of making them in other places.

Olive groves, olive mill, where olives are pressed, are home to the art of making pastries. The art of making pastries is the art of making them.

The Christmas story is a story of life and death, a story of the past and the present.

The story of the past is the story of the present. The Christmas story is the story of life and death, a story of the past and the present.

They have eight names, family, friends, and sometimes, in the middle of the night, a child. A common name, a common story, a common life, and a common death.

A common variety of pastries is in the book. The book is a story of life and death, a story of the past and the present.

Some of these stories are true, others, imagined. Some are written, others are oral. Some are printed, others are spoken. Some are published, others are not.

BAKLAVA

Yll Saves It 'til Later....

Baklava may seem the height of luxury until Christmas, but that's only the beginning to make it the perfect in every respect.

The Chicago Journal
FOOD SECTION

Journal Staff Photos By Del Smith

Appetizers, Pastries Brighten Buffet Tables

Baklava, a delicious Middle Eastern dessert, becomes the perfect table accent to a Christmas dinner, available at stores and bakeries.

'Baklava'

By Florence Winter
Winnis 1-1879

LAYERED of Greek phyllo dough with honey syrup, baklava is easy to make at home. The layers of thin dough are filled with a mixture of walnuts or almonds, pine nuts, and a sweet syrup that is poured over the top layer of phyllo dough before baking. The result is a rich, sweet dessert that is perfect for the holidays.

The Ottoman Empire, which includes modern-day Turkey, Greece, and Iraq, is a region with a long history of sweet confections, including baklava. The dessert is believed to have originated in the Middle East and was later introduced to Europe by the Ottoman Turks.

In addition to baklava, other traditional Middle Eastern desserts include maamoul, a sweet pastry filled with dates or nuts, and halva, a sweet, chocolate-flavored soap-like confection made from sesame seeds.

Baklava is often served as a dessert at special occasions, such as weddings and religious holidays. It is known for its rich, sweet flavor and is a popular treat throughout the Middle East.

For more information on Middle Eastern cuisine and traditional desserts, visit the Library of Congress's American Folklife Center or the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of American History.

WHO CARES What You KNOW About Bedding As Long As You BUY it?

We DO! We want certainly do! We know what’s it’s to wake each morning with a backache, headache...in fact, that ache all over feeling, like you’ve fought the Civil War single handedly. Funny thing about people. Many of them sleep restless, wake up tired, feel grumpy and never wonder if their mattress is at fault. Yet, our experience indicates that a poor mattress is at the bottom of most sleep problems. We say that because so many of our customers have been assured of the improvement in their sleep after they bought a quality mattress. When you shop for bedding—Mattresses and Box Springs—what you’re really shopping for is sleep, isn’t it? D-r-e-a-m, calm, restful, soundful. Stretch-out, relaxing. If you sleep, T-e-x-t is a gift to be treasured...

NOW FOR THE FIRST TIME...EVANS OFFERS YOU A SIMMONS MATTRESS AT A LOW LOW PRICE AND INCLUDES A SLEEP GUARANTEE!

What is a Sleep Guarantee?
A sleep guarantee is your assurance that you will be satisfied with your purchase at Evans Home Furnishings. Read the guarantee below for full details:

When you purchase the Aristaquilt Supreme mattress and box spring from Evans you try it for 30 days from the date of delivery, and if you do not have sleep satisfaction you simply come in to Evans and pick out some other firmness and pay or we will refund the difference between the one you already have and the one you have picked out.

Whether you have a small or large family, there is a mattress and boxspring to fit in this line. A wide variety of sizes and styles to choose from, including the soft, medium, and firm mattress options. The Supreme mattress is available in twin, full, queen, and king sizes, and the boxspring is available in both twin and full sizes.

When you make a purchase, you'll receive a sleep guarantee card, which you can present whenever you have questions or concerns about your mattress. This card will provide you with a variety of options to help you choose the mattress that's right for you.

King Size $169.00
Queen-Size $129.00
Full or Twin $89.00
