Marines To Be Pulled From Border

BETHLEHEM (AP) - The South Vietnamese army has moved Marines to the border with Cambodia to guard against any invasion. This move was made in the first step of a plan to withdraw troops from Cambodia, according to defense department sources. The plan was outlined in a letter from the defense secretary, John Connally, to President Johnson.

The South Vietnamese army has moved Marines to the border with Cambodia to guard against any invasion. This move was made in the first step of a plan to withdraw troops from Cambodia, according to defense department sources. The plan was outlined in a letter from the defense secretary, John Connally, to President Johnson.

The letter said that the move was in response to the South Vietnamese army's request for additional security forces in the border area.

The letter also said that the South Vietnamese army would be responsible for the security of the border area.

The letter further said that the United States would provide logistic support to the South Vietnamese army.

The letter concluded by saying that the move was a necessary step in the overall effort to end the war in Vietnam.

Bobby's Inquiry Fails To Holt Airline Puff

When Bob Holt, a 22-year-old college student, tried to persuade a group of friends to sign an anti-airplane petition, his friends' reaction was not what he was hoping for.

"I'm just trying to get people to think about the environment," Holt said. "I'm not trying to stop people from flying, but just to raise awareness."

But his friends were not convinced. "I don't see how flying is any worse than driving," said one friend.

Another friend said, "I think it's important to think about the environment, but I don't think we should stop flying."

Holt said he was disappointed by the reaction of his friends. "I thought they would be more open to the idea," he said. "But I guess I was wrong."

Weather Factor In Traffic Death

A pedestrian was struck and killed by a car on the busy streets of downtown Oklahoma City, authorities said.

The pedestrain, who was not identified, was killed when he was hit by a car while crossing the street.

The car was traveling at a high speed and failed to stop, authorities said.

The accident happened in the early morning hours, police said.

We Won't Buckle Down

The price of oil has escalated to unprecedented levels. It is a common refrain to hear about the effects of rising oil prices on various aspects of our lives. However, the current situation is much more complex than just a price increase. It is a time of crisis, where we must be prepared to face the challenges ahead.

The Vols Get In Swing For Bowl

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — The Tennessee Volunteers have been picked to finish fourth in the Southeastern Conference's three major football polls. The team is ranked third overall in Sports Illustrated, sixth in the Associated Press poll and seventh in the United Press International poll.

The Vols are coming off a 10-2 season, including a 7-1 record in the SEC, where they finished second to Georgia. The jury is out on the Volunteers' ability to handle SEC opponents, but they are expected to be a tough team.

Tennessee's coaches have the luxury of having experienced starters returning, including quarterback Steve Beamer and running back Garet Kutney. The Volunteers also have a solid defense, anchored by linebacker Alvin Harper and defensive tackle Dan Williams, who both returned for their senior seasons.

The Vols' schedule includes games against Georgia, Vanderbilt, Missouri, Ole Miss, and Mississippi State, among others. Tennessee is expected to be a strong contender for the SEC title and a potential playoff team.
