Christmas, Fla., Saved 'Scrooge' Squashed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13—The Post Office Department has received a special appeal from evangelist Billy Graham to save Christmas. The evangelist, who is known for his message of hope and love, has been working tirelessly to spreading joy and peace this holiday season. In a letter to the Postmaster General, Mr. Graham wrote:

"Mr. Postmaster General,\

I write to you today on behalf of the millions of Americans who are looking for ways to spread the true meaning of Christmas this year. Christmas is a time for giving, and today I urge you to help us do just that. Please consider implementing a special holiday postcard campaign to commemorate the season. This would not only bring joy to individuals, but also help support the charitable organizations that work tirelessly to improve the lives of others.

Billy Graham"
