Judge Says City's Cooperation Necessary

By D. W. THOMAS WILCOX

City Manager, General Manager Donney de la O media, a severance agreement that the city was seeking to withdraw from the Metropolitan Transportation Authority in order to operate the public transit system independently. The agreement was signed by the mayor and city officials, and was approved by the city council. The move is expected to save the city money, and will allow the city to operate the system more efficiently. The agreement is subject to ratification by the state legislature. The council will consider the proposal at its next meeting.

Hershey Beaten, Officials Believe

Justice Department officials say that they do not believe that Hershey's allegations of wrongdoing are justified. Hershey has filed a lawsuit against the company, claiming that it engaged in illegal practices. The Justice Department has been investigating the company for several months.

McCloskey Wins Seat

SALMON, Idaho (AP) — A Republican candidate for a House seat in Idaho has won the primary election. The candidate, who ran against a Democratic opponent, won by a margin of more than 50 percent. The victory is significant because it gives the Republicans a strengthened position in the Idaho legislature. The election results are expected to be announced later this evening.

Garrison Bares Photo Evidence

New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrisonguard has released photographs that he believes show a federal agent picking up a .38 caliber bullet, left, and checking it in his right, as he tested his hand and gave it to the agent. The photographs, which were taken during the investigation of the JFK assassination, are expected to be released to the public at a press conference scheduled for tomorrow.

Blankenship Raps Winters

Republican Attorney Gen. eral John M. Massa, back as Democratic State Chairman on Tuesday of last week and assured Winters of attempts to contact him to investigate an examination of Winters' office.

Republican G. Denton Kaminski, who was appointed by the commission investigated Winters' matter and informed Winters that the inquiry had been completed.

Winters wrote a letter of Robert J. Fagan, and a new charge was filed against the charged the Secretary of State.

"The investigation has been completed and Winters will be briefed at the earliest possible
date," Kaminski said.

Winters has been briefed on the investigation and is no longer
involved in the matter.

The attorney general spoke of the inquiry and said Winters will be briefed.

"Winters was briefed on the investigation and is no longer involved in the matter."
