It's Old Home Week In Miami

BY TERRY WRIGHT

Bud Wilkinson Joins OU Fans

It was a long way from Eugene to Miami, but for Bud Wilkinson it was just a hop, skip and a jump. Wilkinson, the legendary coach who led the Oklahoma Sooners to more than 200 victories in 25 seasons, arrived in Miami on Monday night to join the OU football team for its game against the Miami Hurricanes.

Wilkinson, 88, is recovering from a broken hip and is expected to be on the sidelines for the rest of the season. He will be accompanied by his wife, Jean, and their daughter, Pam.

Wilkinson was named to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1966 and is a member of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame. He has been honored with numerous awards throughout his coaching career, including the Outland Trophy and the AP Coach of the Year Award.

SAXON (U.S.A.)—The Vietcong trapped a U.S. Army Task Force, killing 200 Americans in one of the bloodiest battles ever fought in Vietnam. The Americans, who were trapped in a narrow valley, were fighting their way back to the base camp when they were ambushed by the Vietcong.

The battle, which lasted for almost a week, was fought near the base camp of a U.S. Air Force base in the northern part of Vietnam. The Americans were trying to withdraw to safety when they were surprised by a heavy Vietcong attack.

The Vietcong, who are fighting a guerrilla war against the Americans, have been hitting the Americans hard in recent weeks. The battle near the Air Force base was one of the bloodiest in Vietnam.

Oswald Sent Telegram To J. Edgar Hoover?

By CARROLL THOMAS

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Ott Arvis, J. Edgar Hoover and the Mafia were all in the picture when Lee Harvey Oswald sent a taunting telegram to the FBI chief.

Dr.Otis Power Davis, a New Orleans psychiatrist, said he saw the telegram and the agency's security procedures were not followed.

The FBI, which has been criticized for its handling of the case, said it was investigating the matter.

The FBI did not respond to a request for comment.

The telegram was sent to Hoover in October 1963 and contained a threat to kill him.
