Rural Areas Hold Key, LBJ Aide Says

By JIM CARSON

The countryside crashes the answer to city problems, President Johnson's top aide, Senator Farris of Oklahoma City, said Wednesday.

"The countryside is the key to our nation's future, and the rural areas hold the key to our cities," Senator Farris said in a press conference.

Tommy Steele Shines At 'Half Sixpence' Premiere

Installation

January 12

TOMMY STEELE and GISELLE WILSON made a hit in the Soviet Union with the musical based on the wartime song ‘Half Sixpence’, which they are performing at Her Majesty’s Theatre. The show, which has been completely re-worked, runs until March 12, when it will tour the provinces. Steelie and Giselle, who are also the stars of the film version, are said to have been looking forward to coming to the West End for a long time. The tour was delayed because of the lack of a suitable London venue. As a result, they have been touring for about three months and have been well-received. The show is being produced by the London Theatre Company, which also produced the film version of the musical. The company is currently looking for a new venue for the tour.

Left-Over Bird Can Whet Appetite In
Cheese Chowder

TURKEY CHEESE CHOWDER
2 cups turkey
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup canned cream
1/4 cup evaporated milk
1 clove garlic, minced
2 cups diced potatoes
1 medium onion, chopped
2 cups frozen mixed vegetables
1 can cream-style corn
salt and pepper

Combine turkey, milk, cream, milk, garlic, potatoes, onion, vegetables, and corn in saucepan. Cover. Simmer for 15 minutes or until the potatoes are tender. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve hot. This is a great way to use up left-over turkey. It's also good with chicken. Use the same ingredients, except reduce the turkey to a 1/2 cup. If you're feeling extra fancy, add a dollop of sour cream or a sprinkle of chopped chives. Enjoy a bowl of this comforting soup on a cold winter day and let the flavors of Thanksgiving linger in your memory. And don't forget to save some room for the rest of the meal! It's a feast for the senses. It's a perfect way to use up those left-over turkeys. It's also good with chicken. Use the same ingredients, except reduce the turkey to a 1/2 cup.
'Not So Bad To Be American,' Says City Doctor

TOO BROWN DRIVER

The city of Chicago was given a 'minority opinion' by the City Council this week when it approved a resolution stating that it is not "so bad to be American." The resolution, which was introduced by Alderman James Brown, states that the city is "a place where we should be proud to be American." The council voted 13-7 in favor of the resolution.

Left-Over Bird Can Whet Appetite In Cheese Chowder

The LEFTOVERS from the holiday feasts are sure to be a rich source of inspiration for your menus. The following recipe for Cheese Chowder is just one example of how you can transform those leftovers into a delicious and satisfying meal. Whether it's turkey, ham, or any other holiday main dish, this chowder is sure to add a new twist to your post-holiday cooking.

To make a gallon of Cheese Chowder, follow these steps:
1. Melt 6 tablespoons of butter in a large pot over medium heat.
2. Add 1 cup of diced onion and 1 cup of diced celery, and cook until tender.
3. Stir in 1 cup of flour, 2 teaspoons of salt, 1/4 teaspoon of black pepper, and 1/2 teaspoon of chopped thyme.
5. Simmer for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the mixture thickens.
6. Add 2 cups of cooked and cubed turkey, 1 cup of cubed ham, 1 cup of cubed cheddar cheese, and 1 cup of cubed Swiss cheese.
7. Cook for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the cheese is melted and the mixture is heated through.

Serve hot, garnished with fresh herbs and a drizzle of cream. This Cheese Chowder is a great way to use up those holiday leftovers and provide a comforting meal for the family.

Puerto Ricans Like Fellow 'J' Students

A new report suggests that Puerto Ricans are more likely to be interested in attending college than their fellow ‘J’ students. The report, published by the National Council of Puerto Rican Affairs, found that Puerto Ricans are more likely to express an interest in higher education compared to students from other ethnic groups. The findings are based on a survey conducted among high school students in Puerto Rico.

Baptist Named As Missionaries

Peter and Susan Jones, a couple from Oklahoma City, have been named as the new mission leaders for the Baptist Church. The Joneses, who are well-known for their work in the church, will be responsible for overseeing the mission efforts in the United States. The Baptist Church has a long history of sending missionaries to different parts of the world.

Dickens Claim Disputed

A new book challenges the traditional view of Charles Dickens as a humanitarian. The book, written by a British scholar, argues that Dickens was more interested in exploiting the masses than in helping them. The author draws on new evidence to support his argument, including letters and documents that were previously unknown.

Book Calls Fisk New Robin Hood

A new book has been published that challenges the traditional view of Fisk University as a center of academic excellence. The book, written by a historian, argues that Fisk University was more interested in exploiting its students than in educating them. The author draws on new evidence to support his argument, including letters and documents that were previously unknown.

6 City Scouts Become Eagles

Robert E. Lee High School boasts an incredible record of achievement in scouting. This year, the school's Boy Scout troop, led by Scoutmaster Mr. Thomas, has become the first troop in the nation to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout.

Robert E. Lee High School's Boy Scout troop, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Mr. Thomas, has achieved an extraordinary milestone. The troop has been awarded the highest rank in scouting, Eagle Scout, placing them among the elite of America's Boy Scouts.

In recognition of their exceptional service and dedication, the troop members have been invited to participate in a special ceremony at the national headquarters of the Boy Scouts of America. This recognition is a testament to the hard work and commitment of the troop members and their Scoutmaster.

The achievement of becoming Eagle Scouts is a significant accomplishment that requires the completion of a service project and the demonstration of leadership skills. Congratulations to Robert E. Lee High School's Boy Scout troop on this remarkable achievement.

Rice Pudding With Plum Raisins

For a rice pudding dessert — not for futility — try this pudding and old-fashioned rice on the table. A bit of rum makes it extra special.

1 cup long-grain rice
2 cups milk
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons raisins, drained
Raisin spice

Begin by cooking the rice in milk, sugar, salt and vanilla. Bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer until rice is done. Do not add raisins just yet. In a small bowl, mix together the following:

1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup rum
1/2 cup raisin spice
1/2 cup water

Cook mixture until thick. Stir often and add to rice mixture. Place in greased pudding mold and bake in a preheated oven at 350 degrees for 1-1/2 hours. Serve hot or cold.
