Demolition Results In ‘Pedestrians Prohibited’ Signs

By FRED WEBER

A “Pedestrians Prohibited” sign goes up or the site of the south side of the hotel next week as part of the Manhattan Boulevard renovation project.

Prohibitions against pedestrians and parking along the Liberty Bank Tower will be in effect until 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. next week, Monday, June 23, through Thursday, June 26, inclusive.

“A few pedestrians were found on Friday in the area and several could be seen walking along the street on Monday,” City Public Safety Director John H. Hare said. “It’s our own protection,” Hare said. “We don’t want anything to happen to those pedestrians. We’re trying to keep the area safe.”

The signs prohibit pedestrian access and parking on the south side of the hotel. The area was closed to traffic earlier this month as part of the renovation.

Bucher Faces Court Martial

The House Waterfront appeared to be in full swing on Wednesday morning as the House of Representatives met to discuss potential legislation. The House approved a resolution in the early morning hours to extend the term of the House of Representatives for one year. The resolution was expected to be signed by the President and sent to Congress for approval.

The resolution, which was introduced by Rep. John D. Dingell, D-Mich., and Rep. James Wright, D-Texas, would extend the term of the House of Representatives from two years to four years.

Californians Flee Storm’s Ominous

A storm warning has been issued for the San Francisco Bay area, with strong winds expected. The National Weather Service has advised residents to stay indoors and avoid travel.

The Inside News

- Mayor’s challenge: Vacate the building within 30 days or face legal action.
- Fire alarm: Activated three times in the past week.
- State Troopers: Responded to 911 calls 11 times last year.

Two More Czechs Set Selves Afire

President Bush held the first formal meeting with members of his Cabinet after 11 of the 12 were sworn in at a ceremony in the East Room, White House. Secretary of State Colin Powell, who had not yet been confirmed, addressed the meeting to explain the Bush administration's foreign policy priorities.

Showdown On Nickel Fate Today

The Senate Appropriations Committee is expected to vote on a measure to extend the nickel's life, which expires in 1995. The measure is part of a larger bill that would provide funds to the Department of Interior for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1995.

Party Planner for the Win

A party planner for the Win is expected to be announced today. The party will be held in the evening to celebrate the success of the campaign.

Pacific Journal

- Tropical storm warning: Issued for the Hawaiian Islands.
- Tsunami warning: Issued for the Pacific coast of Mexico.

Dr. Yvonne

Dr. Yvonne has been named the next head of the hospital's research department, replacing Dr. John Smith, who retired last year.

2 Aides, Kin Draw Charge

The House approved a resolution to expel 2 aides and their kin from the House. The aides, John and Jane, were accused of conflicts of interest and were forced to resign.

The House approved the resolution in a 339-1 vote on Wednesday. The resolution comes after an investigation by the House Ethics Committee.

Bucher Faces Court Martial

The House approved a resolution to disbar Rep. Bill Bucher, D-Ohio, for conducting campaign events in his district without authorization from the House.

The House approved the resolution in a 339-1 vote on Wednesday. The resolution comes after an investigation by the House Ethics Committee.

What Memorial Is Best For Robert F. Kennedy?

CARDINAL Cushing of Boston, an old and close friend of the Kennedy family, believes the slain Senator should have a monument that is more than just stone and steel. But finding the right idea for such a memorial has not been easy. What should it be?

The distinguished prelate has his own idea for an RFK memorial. But perhaps you have a better one. Read Cushing's stirring plea for ideas about a suitable memorial and turn the page to find out how you can help. The Sunday, January 24.

Since 1941... Guy H. James Industries, Inc. Continues to Grow!

In 1941, we were known as the Walter E. Allen Company and were producing military fatigue jackets and pants on a 3-shift schedule with fifty sewing machines.

Today, Guy H. James Industries is continuing to stretch its way to success and has become one of the country's largest producers of clothing items for the government. In addition, we manufacture ladies style pants for Village and Longhny Shirt Co.; dresses under the name of "Steffis Place"; our own line of style pants, "Ramblers"; and a commercial line of children's pants and sportswear marketed under the name of "Little Guy." Production exceeds 200,000 units a month with the employment of 350 people.

"As long as we can continue to depend on the devotion, cooperation, and fine attitude of our employees," says Mrs. Bay, "we will continue to grow and prosper!"

One of the most baffling issues in the current life of the city is the population. Estimates place the number of people residing in the city from 400,000 to 450,000.

City Departments
Win Reid Praise

Win Reid, mayor of Midwest City, has cited the proximity of Memorial Hospital and the close-off vicinity as reasons for the increase in population. Reid said that the city has moved from a rural setting to a more urban area.

Win Reid Praise

The city's population growth is expected to continue, with Reid predicting that the city will reach 500,000 by the end of the year. "The city is growing, and we expect to continue this growth," Reid said. "We have a lot of new businesses opening up, and we are seeing more people moving in." Reid also praised the city's schools, saying that they are doing a great job.

Win Reid Praise

The mayor also spoke about the city's parks and recreational areas. "We are working hard to create a safe and enjoyable environment for our residents," Reid said.

Despite the growth, Reid said that the city is still very much a small town. "We have a strong sense of community," Reid said. "We are proud of our city, and we want to keep it that way."
Pride: Tops At Carl Albert

Located on Midwest City's west side at 2525 N. SE 23 in Carl Albert Junior Senior High School, the city's only one with an enrollment of 2,000 students, the school is proud of its history and traditions. Students and faculty are committed to excellence in education, and the school's academic programs are designed to meet the needs of all students.

"It's unusual to find a school that's in a city and not a suburb," said Assistant Principal Victor V. Rose. "For kids that go to Carl Albert, they love it. The community is very proud of their school, and we strive to make sure that everyone feels welcome and valued.

"We are committed to providing a quality education for all students, and we believe in the importance of preparing them for success in life. We offer a wide range of courses and activities to help our students reach their full potential. Our goal is to help our students achieve their dreams and make a positive impact on their communities.

"The school is very community-oriented, and we have a strong partnership with local businesses to provide students with real-world experience. Our students are proud to be part of the Carl Albert community, and we are proud to be a part of this community.

"In addition to our academic programs, we have a variety of extracurricular activities, including sports teams, clubs, and community service projects.

"We are committed to providing a safe and supportive learning environment for all students. We have a strong counseling program to help students navigate the challenges of high school and beyond. We also have a strong emphasis on diversity and inclusion, and we work to create a welcoming and inclusive school culture.

"We are grateful for the support of our students, families, and community, and we look forward to continuing to provide a quality education for all students in the years to come.

"We are proud of our school, and we believe it is one of the best in the city. We are committed to providing a quality education for all students, and we believe in the importance of preparing them for success in life. We offer a wide range of courses and activities to help our students reach their full potential. Our goal is to help our students achieve their dreams and make a positive impact on their communities.
Howell To Lead Chamber Again

Howell Cites 3 Major Projects

Midwest City Chamber of Commerce president James F. Howell cites three projects as major achievements during his presidency:

1. The completion of the new Midwest City Conference Center.
3. The construction of a new high school.

These projects have significantly enhanced the quality of life in Midwest City and are expected to attract new businesses and residents to the area.

New Industry To Be Announced

Capping a year of activity for the Midwest City Industrial Development Authority is the announcement that a company not yet in existence will soon become the city's Industrial Park.

Skeeter Industries, Inc., the business to be headquartered in the city's Industrial Park, will be held on the site in the next few weeks and will begin operations in a 5,000 square foot building. The company will also have the option to expand into the 8,000 square foot building located adjacent to their new plant from the authority.

Cecil Phillips, manager of the Skeeter Industries, said the firm has a specific purpose in mind for the building and the area. Phillips said the firm, which will initially employ 300 workers and eventually reach a labor force of over 300, will be engaged in assembling and manufacturing military aircraft support equipment.

The company will also be involved in some work with civilian firms and plans to increase their pace of activity.

Business weeks are being held to study techniques for the production of high-quality components which will eventually be made in the Midwest City Industrial Park.

The January 30 announcement date is planned in cooperation with the presentation of the City of Midwest City's annual chamber of commerce auction.

Phillips reported that he felt that the firm was the first of its kind in the area and that the firm will be engaged in assembling and manufacturing military aircraft support equipment.

Miss Midwest City To Relinquish Crown Feb. 22

A 3-year-old speed was driven by a 6-year-old female in a 3-year-old body.

A 16-year-old female is planning to run in the Miss Midwest City pageant, which is set for Feb. 22. The pageant is sponsored by the Midwest City Chamber of Commerce.

The pageant will be held at the Midwest City High School auditorium. It will feature a variety of events, including talent, interview, and evening gown competitions.

The pageant is open to all females living in the Midwest City area. The winner will be crowned Miss Midwest City and will represent the city in various events throughout the year.

Strong Leadership Keeps City Progressive And Alert

Having gained the public at least a moderate respect for their activities in the past, the leaders of the city of Midwest City have the opportunity to continue to gain the public's confidence and trust. The city's leaders are aware of the problems and challenges facing the community and are committed to finding solutions.

One of the key goals of the leadership team is to ensure that the city's growth and development are sustainable and inclusive. They are committed to promoting economic development while preserving the city's natural resources and cultural heritage.

The city's leaders are also focused on improving the quality of life for residents. They are working to improve public safety, increase access to affordable housing, and enhance the city's parks and recreational facilities.

In addition to these priorities, the city's leaders are also committed to being good stewards of the city's resources. They are working to reduce the city's carbon footprint and promote renewable energy sources.

Overall, the leadership team is committed to building a strong, vibrant, and sustainable community that is a great place to live, work, and raise a family.
New Junior College...

Midwest City's long-planned junior college will open in spring with a faculty of five teachers and a credit-hours program for the first time.

The junior college's board of trustees last Wednesday morning elected the high school principal for the number of courses he has completed and his dedication to teaching.

The college, which is located on the campus of Midway City High School, will offer courses in business, science, and humanities.

Midwest City Builds Top Road Network

A closely coordinated effort to modernize the city's road network and create more efficient traffic patterns has helped to keep the city's residents and visitors moving smoothly. The project includes the construction of new roads and improvements to existing streets, all aimed at improving the flow of traffic and reducing congestion.

The Midwest City Council approved the project in 2018, with the goal of creating a more connected and accessible road network. The project is expected to be completed by 2022 and will result in a significant improvement in the city's transportation infrastructure.

Midwest City Planning Pays

Planning has paid off for the Midwest City Council. The city's investment in careful planning has resulted in significant benefits for residents and businesses alike.

One of the key benefits of planning is the creation of a more livable and sustainable community. This includes the development of parks and green spaces, the preservation of historic buildings, and the creation of a walkable, bikeable, and accessible city center.

Another benefit of planning is the creation of a strong economic base. By attracting new businesses and industries, the city has been able to create new jobs and opportunities for residents.

The city's commitment to planning has also resulted in a more efficient use of resources. By carefully planning the placement of new buildings and facilities, the city has been able to reduce its impact on the environment.

In conclusion, the Midwest City Council's commitment to planning has resulted in a more livable, sustainable, and economically vibrant community. The city's residents and businesses have benefited from these investments, and the city continues to lead the way in planning for the future.

New Park
Signs heralding beginning of work on the city's new 18-hole park course between 6th and SE 102nd near Douglas Blvd. The 18-hole municipal golf course will be located in the park.

Work On New Park, Golf Course Starts

Midwest City's eighth public regional park complex is one more improvement in a city's efforts to clothe the city's then 18-hole golf course with new life.

The course, considered by many the most beautiful in the state, will have a new layout, new holes, and a new par design. It will be built on 100 acres of prime city-owned land.

The new course will be located in the park, which will be developed on 150 acres between 6th and SE 102nd near Douglas Blvd.

The course will have four greens, four tee boxes, a driving range, a putting green, and a club house. The course will be open to the public for a fee.

The project is being supervised by the city's park department and is expected to be completed within a year.

Exercise Class At Y

Women enjoy using the regular exercise classes at the YMCA by attending a regular exercise class to tone up muscles. This is a complete health center, gymnasium and pool.

4,000 Enjoy Y's Expanded Facilities

Creating a warm, inviting atmosphere in the small town of Midwest City, the YMCA has more than doubled its membership since its opening in 1965.

In just 15 years the YMCA has grown from a small, old facility to a modern, community-centered center.

The Y is now home to a variety of activities, from swimming and exercise classes to social events and community service.

The Y's expansion has been made possible by the support of the community and the generosity of local businesses.

---THE OKLAHOMA JOURNAL, THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1969---
Municipal Complex: Answer To Future

A united effort by city officials, business, civic groups and state legislators led to the completion of the Municipal Complex in Norman's history.

After a decade, the Municipal Complex was finally opened to the public. The complex includes an extensive parking area, a park, and a library. It is the largest public building in Norman and is expected to serve as a hub for community events and activities.

The complex features a large central hall, which can be divided into smaller rooms for various events. There is also a large outdoor area with a fountain and statues. The library is located on the second floor and is open to the public.

The opening of the Municipal Complex is a major milestone for the city of Norman. It is a symbol of the city's commitment to providing its residents with a modern and convenient facility.

The complex is located at the corner of Main Street and 1st Avenue. It is accessible by public transportation and is easily located by car.

In conclusion, the Municipal Complex is a significant addition to the city of Norman. It is a testament to the city's dedication to providing its residents with quality facilities and services.
Membership 'War' Ready In Chamber

... Annual Drive Due To Start Jan. 27

CHUNKY

The theme for the 1969 drive is "All-Out War" and the Chamber president is urging the activities of every member to continue. The membership will be divided into various profit and loss companies, and the results of each company will be made known to all members.

This annual drive will kick off at Jan. 17 and close Jan. 31. Chamber directors George Phillips and chairman of the Community Chest and its groups will be madefully next week.

The membership drive kicks off a year's worth of Chamber activities for 1969.

The group's board of directors has recommended to the membership a budget of $46,675 which includes new programs and projects that will be implemented by the chamber. Phillips vows a goal of $20,000 additional membership in the objectives of the drive and the Chamber president.
