GRAGG ATTACKS BARTLETT’S ROLE

No Politics Involved In Lettings

In BARTLETT CHARGE
Former highway commissioner Charles K. Gragg, who felt that bartlett’s practice of involving politics in his让tings was a manner of obstructing
the administration of his office, announced his intention to run against Bartlett in the next election.

Bartlett, on the other hand, denied invoking politics in his lettings and said that he was merely following
the usual methods
of administration.

Gragg said that he felt the practices of Bartlett were unfair and unjust,
and that the public was being cheated by his activities.

Bartlett, on the other hand,
said
that his lettings were based on fairness and justice,
and that he had been following
the usual procedures
his office.

The two men met in a debate to discuss their views on the subject,
and the public
was encouraged to vote on the issue in the next election.

ABC, Rights Panel Funds Approved

The American Bar Association has approved the funds for the American rights panel at the 1967 meeting of the United Nations Human Rights Commission. The panel, made up of 22 countries, will discuss human rights issues and recommend solutions to the U.N. Human Rights Commission.

Contributions Toward Advanced

A group of experts on human rights is meeting to discuss the latest developments in the field. The group, organized by the American Bar Association, includes lawyers, academics, and human rights activists from around the world. The meeting will focus on the current state of human rights and the challenges facing the international community.

Bill Would Aid Projectionists

A bill is being introduced in Congress to aid projectionists in the entertainment industry. The bill, sponsored by Representative John Doe, would provide financial assistance to projectionists who have lost their jobs due to the rise of digital technology. The bill also includes provisions for training and retraining programs to help projectionists transition to new careers.

To Insure Attendance

Dr. Paul W. Jackson, chair of the Human Rights Commission, will speak at a conference in New York City. The conference, titled "Human Rights: A Global Perspective," will bring together experts from around the world to discuss the latest developments in human rights.

Polly's Pointers

In an interview, Polly points out that the current state of human rights is a result of the actions of governments and international organizations. She emphasizes the need for cooperation and dialogue to address human rights issues.

Vietnam Victim's Funeral Pending

The funeral of a victim of the Vietnam War is set for next week. The victim, a young soldier, died in a battle near the Demilitarized Zone. The funeral will be held in his home town, and a large crowd is expected to attend.

Make The Most Of Meat...

Whether you're planning a lavish party or feeding a family dinner, meat can add a touch of sophistication and variety to your meal. Here are some tips to help you make the most of meat:

1. Plan Ahead: Decide on the type of meat you'll be using and plan your menu accordingly. This will help you buy the right amount and prevent waste.

2. Prep Work: Preparing meat in advance can save you time and effort. Marinating meat is a good way to add flavor and tenderness.

3. Cooking Techniques: Different cooking techniques can bring out different flavors and textures in meat.Try grilling, roasting, or slow-cooking depending on the type of meat you're using.

4. Serving Sides: Pairing meat with the right side dishes can enhance the overall meal experience. Consider vegetables, potatoes, or bread as complementary sides.

5. Budget Considerations: Meat can be expensive, so consider saving money by using less expensive cuts of meat or cooking the meat in smaller portions.

Here are some recipes to get you started:

Smoked Pork Shoulder Roll

- Ingredients:
  - 3 lb pork shoulder
  - 1/2 cup honey
  - 2 tbsp Dijon mustard
  - 1 tbsp olive oil
  - 1 clove garlic, minced

- Directions:
  1. Preheat the oven to 325°F.
  2. Mix honey and Dijon mustard in a small bowl.
  3. Rub the mixture onto the pork shoulder.
  4. Heat a large skillet over medium-high heat.
  5. Add olive oil and garlic.
  6. Sear the pork on all sides.
  7. Place the pork in a roasting pan.
  8. Bake for 2 hours or until the internal temperature reaches 145°F.

Save Money With Meat Meals

- Boney Meat Loaf
- Peppered Ham Roast
- Smoked Pork Shoulder Roll

---

The Obedient Ingredient

When choosing your meat, make sure it's fresh and of good quality. Look for a good marbling of fat and a fresh, clean appearance. Meat that's been stored too long will start to go off, which can affect the taste and texture. Always check the expiration date on packages to ensure freshness.

NEW! SPEAKS APPLE JUICE

- The perfect addition to any meal!
- No need to dilute with water.
- Just heat and serve.

---

Cherry Cobbler

- 6 cups fresh cherries
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup flour
- 2 tbsp cornstarch
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1/4 tsp nutmeg
- 2 tbsp butter
- 1/4 cup water
- 1 tsp vanilla extract

- Directions:
  1. Preheat the oven to 375°F.
  2. Mix cherries, sugar, flour, cornstarch, salt, and nutmeg.
  3. Add butter and water to the cherry mixture.
  4. Mix well and pour into a greased 9-inch baking dish.
  5. Dot the top with butter and vanilla extract.
  6. Bake for 30 minutes or until bubbly and golden brown.

---

Dress Up Pork Roll

- Season the pork with your favorite rubs and spices.
- Serve with a variety of toppings such as salsa, guacamole, or sour cream.

---

NEVER KNOWLINGLY UNDERSOLD

PHIPPS APPLIANCE CENTERS

- Open until 9 PM, Mon. thru Fri., Sat. till 6 PM.

---

Make a Delicious CHEESE CAKE!

- 1 3-oz. package lemon flavored gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- 3 envelopes or 3 3-ounce packages cream cheese
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Chill until slightly thickened. Cream together cheese, sugar, and vanilla; add gelatin and blend well. Fold in stiffly whipped MILNOT. (This can be done with electric-mixer.) Mix graham cracker crumbs and melted butter together, pack 1/3 of mixture on bottom and sides of 9x9x2-inch pan. Add filling and sprinkle with remaining crumbs. Chill several hours (or overnight). Cut in squares and serve plain or garnished with fruit. 12-16 servings.

Does Your Child 'Like' You?

A rebellious act may be trying to "get over" with his father for real or fancied offenses. A teens-age child who "hates" you might be punning your mother. There are typical methods younger ones use to "get back" at parents. They put many more.

Every parent should be able to recognize such symptoms of inner resentment and know how to handle them. By the end of this article, you will be able to handle them. By the end of this article, you will be able to handle them.

Cherry Chocolate Ones

Bake Cookies For 'Them'

If YOU really want to show the appreciation you feel for the teachers at your child's school, make and bake some cookies for the staff members. You can use this recipe for Cherry Chocolate Ones or any other recipe you like. The idea is to show your appreciation in a tangible way. If you have a photo of your children with the teachers, you can include it in the cookies as a personal touch.

Ingredients:
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 cup butter, softened
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups mini marshmallows
- 2 cups semi-sweet chocolate chips

Instructions:
1. Preheat oven to 350°F (175°C).
2. In a large bowl, cream together the butter, sugar, and brown sugar until light and fluffy.
3. Beat in the eggs one at a time, then stir in the vanilla.
4. In a separate bowl, whisk together the flour, baking soda, and salt.
5. Gradually add the flour mixture to the butter mixture, alternating with the marshmallows and chocolate chips.
6. Drop by rounded tablespoons onto ungreased baking sheets.
7. Bake for 12-15 minutes or until golden brown.
8. Cool on wire racks.

Celebrate George's Day
With Cherry Tree Dessert

George Washington's birthday is celebrated each year on February 22nd. It is a great opportunity to bake a special dessert in his honor. A popular choice is a Cherry Pie Dessert, which can be made with a classic recipe or a modern twist. Elevate your dessert with a touch of elegance, such as serving it in a crystal dish or garnishing it with fresh cherries. This tradition not only pays tribute to the man who served as our first president, but also adds a delightful flavor to any celebration.

Make a Delicious CHEESE CAKE!

1 3-oz. package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 3-oz. package strawberry-flavored gelatin 1 3-oz. package cream cheese 3 cups prepared graham cracker crumbs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter, melted

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Chill until slightly thickened. Cream together cream cheese, sugar and vanilla. Add gelatin and blend well. Fold in whipped cream. Pour into a prepared 9x13-inch pan. Chill until firm. Serve with fresh fruit or whipped cream.

Founder's Day Programs Scheduled By P-TEA Units

The P-TEA (Parent-Teacher Association) units at the school are planning various programs to celebrate Founder's Day. These events will be held in the morning and will feature speeches, presentations, and student performances. Parents and teachers are encouraged to attend and participate. The day is an opportunity to honor the school's history and the contributions of its founders.

Does Your Child 'Like You'?

A recent poll may be inspiring to "get even" with your father for real or fictional slights. In a national survey of 1,000 girls aged 10-17, 73% said they "like" their fathers, while 27% said they "don't like" their fathers. The survey was conducted by the National Father's Day Council, which also found that 86% of the girls who said they "like" their fathers said they "like" their mothers, while 74% said they "like" their fathers and their mothers.
