Astronauts Left on their own after the start of the Apollo 11 mission. The spaceship had been designed to fly to the moon, and was part of a $26 billion project to land a man on the moon. The mission was set to launch at 9:32 AM on July 16, and the astronauts were sitting in the command module, which would take them to the moon and back. The launch was delayed by a technical glitch in the spacecraft, and the astronauts were forced to wait for the launch to be rescheduled. This was the first time that a man had been left on his own in space, and it was a momentous event in the history of space exploration. The astronauts eventually launched on July 18, and the mission was successful.

Two Ex-Highway Officials Testify Monday

Dane, Keating Going On Firing Line In Probe

By PAUL STROUD

All three men now facing criminal charges for their role in the highway scandal are expected to testify Monday in the hearing on the appointment of a special prosecutor.

The three men, former Transportation Secretary William D. Keating, former Governor Robert U. Dornan and former Highway Administrator John G. Johnson, are expected to testify Monday in the hearing on the appointment of a special prosecutor.

The hearing is expected to last two days, with testimony from the three men and other witnesses expected to continue throughout the week.

Have You Ever Lived In Rural Oklahoma?

The people of rural Oklahoma are asking for your help in a crisis. The lives of which we have never witnessed.

Our rural communities are on the verge of being destroyed. The state board of education is closing our schools just because they are rural schools. We provide good schools adequately financed & pay for the education of our children.

When our schools close, the children will be moved great distance to new schools which you will be asked to pay for.

In the Oklahoma City area please write or call the following senators and ask why they want to destroy rural Oklahoma.

S&L Mortgages Hit Record

Assets Take Jump
In Annual Report

S & L mortgages of Oklahoma savings and loans rose to a record $5.3 billion during fiscal 1966, up 16.2% from the year before.

The report on the state of the mortgage business in Oklahoma was released yesterday by the Oklahoma Savings and Loan League.

It is the highest single-year intake in the league's 14 years.

The league also reported a 3.9% increase in deposits, to $7.2 billion.

The report showed that the league's profit was $230 million, a 10% increase over the previous reporting period.

The report also showed that the current gross loan balance was $5.3 billion, up 16.2% from the year before.

All Oklahoma S & Ls are mutual institutions, whereby the depositors of the institution become part owners of the company.

These institutions are regulated by the federal government and the state board of equalization and housing.

The savings and loan associations in Oklahoma are required by law to pay dividends of 3% on the savings account, including paid-up contributions.

In 1966, there were a total of 214 S & Ls in Oklahoma, compared to 204 in 1965.

The average gross loan balance of Oklahoma City S & Ls increased 14% for the year.

The report also showed that the average gross loan balance of all S & Ls in Oklahoma increased 16.2% for the year.

Ford Official Urges Safety 'Hard Sell'

Wednesday—A Ford Motor Co. official made a speech to the Oklahoma Oil and Gas Conservation Association today, urging the industry to do its part to improve safety standards.

The official, who spoke on the subject of training, said that while there have been significant improvements in safety over the years, more needs to be done. He emphasized the importance of ongoing training and education for workers in the oil and gas industry.

Spain Saves Individuality In High Fashion Designs

By DAVIDE LAMBERTI

Spain has been a leader in fashion for many years, and it continues to be so with its latest collection of high fashion designs.

The collection features a variety of styles, including elegant gowns, chic suits, and casual dresses. Each piece is designed to emphasize individuality and uniqueness, reflecting the cultural diversity of Spain.

The designers have utilized a range of fabrics, from silk and chiffon to denim and cotton. The colors range from bold and bright to subtle and understated, allowing each garment to stand out on its own.

The collection is available at select stores throughout the country, and it is expected to be a hit with fashion-conscious customers.

Andy Griffith turns to pulpit!
Andy Griffith plays an ex-Marine brickyard worker turned preacher in Universal City's "Angel In My Pocket," comedy film of a young minister and his wacky family who became immersed in his first congregation, a hard-core church in a small midwestern town with problems. The same cast in the 1965 TV show is used in the film. It stars Thursday at the Will Rogers Theatre. Griffith arrives in Oklahoma City today for a round of personal appearances in connection with the film.

Stardom Hard
To Recapture

By RALPH CUMBER

PHOTOGRAPH BY WILL ROGERS

Will Rogers' new picture, 'Stardom Hard To Recapture,' will be presented at the Will Rogers Theater on Friday, March 30.

The play stars Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur and is directed by Henry Hathaway. It is a biography of Will Rogers, who became famous as a vaudevillian and later as an actor and screenwriter.

In addition to Cooper and Arthur, other notable performers include Robert Young, John Beal, and Virginia Huston.

The play received mixed reviews when it opened on Broadway, but it is expected to be well received by Will Rogers fans in this area.

Yul Brynner
Goes His Way

By SIDNEY CHASE

LONDON, Jan. 30—Yul Brynner's recent appearance in "The King and I" at the Court Theatre here drew the London press to a frenzied pitch.

"The King and I" is a musical adaptation of Lagerback's novel about the life of Anna Leonowens, a Scottish governess who was sent to teach the children of the King of Siam. The musical was first performed on Broadway in 1951 and has since been adapted into a film and a television series.

Yul Brynner's performance as the King of Siam has been praised for its complexity and depth. He has been nominated for an Academy Award for his performance in the film adaptation of "The King and I."
Otto's Off LSD Now

HOLLYWOOD--(AP) --  A new face had been added to the cast of the film "Otto's Off LSD" when it opened in Los Angeles yesterday. The new character, played by a young man named Tony, was introduced at the screening of the film held at the Hollywood Bowl. The young man was described as being "very intelligent" and "very attractive." He was introduced as a friend of Otto's, and it was said that he would play an important role in the film's plot.

Gun Battle Refugee

Visiting from desert port is a young man who is a refugee from the war in Vietnam. He fled his home and came to Hollywood seeking safety and a new beginning. The young man was described as being "brave" and "courageous," and it was said that he would play an important role in the film's plot.

Lovers' 'Romeo And Juliet' Rings True

Passion, Violence Fully Realized In Zeffirelli Version

By LARRY PRICE

"Romeo and Juliet" has been updated and modernized for the 1980s. The film, directed by Franco Zeffirelli, features a young cast of actors, including Olivia Hussey as Juliet and Leonard Whiting as Romeo. The film is set in modern-day Italy, with much of the action taking place in Verona, where the love story of Romeo and Juliet unfolds.

Hijackers Not Only Nuisances On Planes

The story begins on a plane bound for New York City. The hijackers, who are armed with weapons, take control of the plane and demand the release of a political prisoner. The plane is forced to land in the Mojave Desert, where the hijackers hold the passengers hostage. The story continues as the hijackers attempt to escape and the authorities try to negotiate their release.

Hollywood—(AP) -- The latest film being shown in Los Angeles is "Otto's Off LSD," a new film written and directed by John Landis. The film stars John Travolta as Otto, a man who takes LSD and has strange experiences. The film is about 90 minutes long and has been well received by critics. The film is being shown at several theaters in Los Angeles, including the United Artists Theater.
Will Love Spoil Hockey Star
Blazer Rookie Says It's The Opposite

In Oregon, where the best teams are the Speedeaters, the best hockey player is the one who can turn around and score. The current Speedeaters star, Will Love, has done just that. In a recent game against the rival team, the Speedeaters were leading by a goal. Will Love, who had been trailing the game, turned around and scored from his own end to tie the game. The crowd went wild, and Will Love was hailed as the hero of the game.

But Will Love's latest statement is causing quite a stir. In an interview, he said, "I don't think it's the opposite. I think it's the same thing. It's about being able to turn around and make something happen. If you can turn around and score, you're doing your job."

The Speedeaters, who are known for their fast-paced style of play, have been struggling to find a way to keep up with the Speedeaters. Will Love's latest statement could be seen as a bold move, as he is challenging the status quo of the game.

The Speedeaters have been using a new strategy in their recent games, focusing on aggressive defense to keep the ball out of the opponent's territory. Will Love's statement could be seen as a challenge to this strategy, suggesting that the Speedeaters need to focus on their offense instead.

The Speedeaters, who are currently in third place in the league, are hoping that Will Love's latest statement will give them the boost they need to advance to the playoffs.

In other team news, the Speedeaters have signed a new player, who will be joining the team for the upcoming season. The Speedeaters are hoping that this new player will bring the necessary skills and experience to help them advance to the playoffs.

The Speedeaters have been working hard to improve their game, and they are looking forward to the upcoming season. They are confident that with the right strategy and teamwork, they can make a run for the title.
Goldman's Book Short On LBJ

"The Tragedy of Lyndon Johnson," by Evia F. Gold- man, is a study of the former president and his role in the Watergate scandal. It is a must-read for anyone interested in American politics.

By ELIZABETH B. DRUM "The WFT." December 4, 1967

One of the few dinner- theater productions that has come to see itself as a "serious" and "educational" experience is the "White House," which has been presented at the Ohio State University for the past several years. The play, directed by Dr. Richard Shubert, is based on a true story and deals with the Watergate scandal.

In addition to providing entertainment, the production also aims to educate its audience about the events that led up to the scandal. The play is performed by members of the university's drama department and is directed by Dr. Shubert himself.

Art Center Connects

Center Director Patricia H. Manners and Dr. James R. K. Johnson, chairman of the Oklahoma State University system, have announced the establishment of the Center for the Performing Arts at the University of Oklahoma. The center will be housed in the former Oklahoma City Municipal Building and is expected to open in the fall of 1968.

Irresistible?

Phil Silvers is having a difficult time getting the story of the latest hit, "Irresistible," across the country. The show opened in New York last fall and is now playing in Chicago. The play is about a young man who is forced to choose between his love for a woman and his duty to his country.

The play has received mixed reviews, with some critics praising the performances and others criticizing the writing. However, the show has been a box office success and is enjoying a long run in Chicago.

Here's Package For Painters

By STEVEN KULIPNIK

Improving your living space doesn't have to cost a fortune. A little paint can make an old room look like new. And you can do it yourself, with a little help from your local hardware store. Here are some tips for choosing the right paint and applying it properly.

Choosing the Right Paint

- Determine the type of surface you’re painting: walls, trim, or cabinets.
- Decide on the finish you want: flat, semi-gloss, or high-gloss.
- Consider the color of the room: light colors can make a room look larger, while darker colors can make it feel cozier.

Applying the Paint

- Always start with a clean surface. Wipe down the area with a damp cloth.
- Use a roller for large surfaces and a brush for corners and edges.
- Apply two coats of paint for best coverage.
- Let each coat dry before applying another.

Tips for Painting

- Paint a room from the ceiling down: start with the ceiling, then move to the walls and finally the trim.
- Use painter’s tape to protect areas you don’t want to paint.
- If you’re painting a wall, start at the ceiling and work your way down.

Defiance may be their way of getting even with you—an expert tells how to recognize the symptoms and what to do about them

BY DR. REBECCA LISHBEE WITH ADELE WHITELY FLETCHER

A long time ago I read where Judy Garland was quoted as saying, "My mother was not only my stepmother, but my stepfather, and she didn’t love me." Well, that’s not quite true, but I’d go out and say it.

It occurred to me that Judy spoke of her experiences in Hollywood. But there is a letter among the letters of Judy and Doris, dated 1938, and it reads:

Dear Doris,

...I’m feeling better about what’s going on. I think I’m more sensible now. I’ve never been more sure of myself than I am now. I’m working hard, and I’m enjoying it. I think I’m getting better at acting. I’m not as nervous anymore. I’m thinking about getting married, but I’m not sure yet. I’m still trying to figure out what I want to do with my life.

Love, Judy

This letter shows that Judy had a complex relationship with her mother and her career. She was trying to find her footing in Hollywood, but it was not easy.

Today, we see that Judy’s feelings of rejection and abandonment were not unique to her. Many children have similar experiences, and it is important to recognize the symptoms and take action to help them.

When children revolt against parents, it is usually because of a sense of rejection and abandonment. It is important for parents to be aware of these feelings in their children and to take steps to address them.

Dr. Rebecca Lishbee is a child psychologist and author of "Understanding Your Child's Behavior: A Parent's Guide to Positive Discipline." She has helped countless families navigate the challenges of raising children and has developed effective strategies to help parents connect with their children and build strong, healthy relationships.

If you are concerned about your child’s behavior or if you need help understanding their actions, Dr. Lishbee offers individual and group therapy sessions, as well as workshops and seminars. To schedule an appointment or to learn more about her services, please visit her website at www.childpsychologist.com.

The Best Way To Get Your Way

...in dealing with your wife, your boss, your children

BY GERARD NIECZMENSKY

Recently, two of my sons were fighting over some Inferno pie. Each claimed the pie was either too hot or too small or both. I suggested that we all sit down and calmly discuss the problem. Everyone wants what they want, so we have to work together to find a solution. Normally, to protect himself, each of my sons would pick a side and try to argue his point — and each father had given a short list of rules:

- No crying
- No name-calling
- No shouting
- No throwing things

In other words, I consider myself a pacifist negotiator. Our basic aim is to find a solution — to get a calm, rational conversation. Each side is to present their arguments, why it is, etc. And just like in a business, you must have to be able to come up with a solution. How does your solution differ from their solution?

Your objective should be, not to achieve total victory, but to reach an agreement. The other person will feel great pressure. A concession once made is difficult to reverse. So be careful to reverse what you have already said.

Back in the house later, I said to my two sons: "Do you feel you have gained something, or not?" Both replied, in unison, "Yes, we both feel we have gained something."

Further, when I have been able to gain a little, my sons have slowly come to realize that their gains are not as great as they thought they were. It's a useful reminder when negotiating with others. Perhaps it should be: "In dealing with others, when one gains, when one loses, and when one gains a little, but one loses a great deal!"

This week's magazine features "The Art of Negotiating" in New York City business, and provides tips and strategies for successful bargaining. It has also covered various aspects of negotiation, including tips on how to handle different situations.
No Diet, No Exercise
Waist Reducing Belt

If you bought your pants at some name-brand store, or at the mall, you probably didn't waste your money. However, if you're like most people, you've tried a few things that didn't work. Some of them were expensive, some of them were a waste of time, and some of them simply didn't make sense. But you're not alone. Millions of people have tried everything from diets to exercises to reduce their waistlines. And it's not just about looking good. Being fit is good for your health, your wallet, and your confidence. That's why we're here to help. We want to make sure you're getting the best results possible, and we're doing it with our legendary THIN-O-MATIC belt. It's the only belt that reduces your waistline without making you feel uncomfortable or restricted. It's also affordable, easy to use, and it works! So if you're tired of trying and failing, give THIN-O-MATIC a try. You won't regret it.
George Washington Ate Here

When George Washington was born, Bessy and her husband used the Julian calendar, whereas the rest of Europe practiced the Roman-Gregorian Gregorian calendar. Gradually, the Calendar was abolished in 1752, and the Gregorian calendar and compasses were re-established. The name of George Washington is still celebrated today.

Keep it going great—and save the money, too. Use them in America. Visit Washington, D.C. You’ll see it in 4 years when the wind turns blue, it’s interesting, exciting, sometimes even dangerous. But it’s a great place to visit.

Genuine GM Parts — if you over miles replacements.
Always ask for GM. United Dafoe and AC parts, they’re less expensive. Always ask for GM parts. Ask all GM dealers. Whether you drive a GM car, ask for GM parts, too. They’re everywhere.

Keep your GM car all GM.
The Best Way To Get Your Way

1. Physiological Needs
   The person who, faced with a child who won't brush his teeth, knows how to react, has vanquished his child or eaten the toothbrush. When he finds it necessary to reason, it is necessary by reasoning. The child needs to be taught. Where the child respects his mother, he is taught. Problems are recognized. This is the direct link to the child's mind. The child must be taught to respect the mother.

2. Safety and Security Needs
   During the Middle Ages, there was a common practice among the nobility to drink wine with meals. This practice continued until late in the Middle Ages, when it became custom to "biscuit their beverage" (this is the origin of the expression), serving notice on the guests that they were not entitled to drink or eat. Many a host, unwilling to risk a guest, would turn them away.

3. Love and Belonging Needs
   "I buy a dress for each occasion," the woman tells me, "and I have never been able to wear the dress because it is too expensive." The best way to wear the dress is to buy the dress for each occasion. The dress is the only dress she has ever bought. It is never worn because it is too expensive. The woman who is bought a dress for each occasion.

4. Esteem Needs
   "We are in China," a woman in a top dress, says to her companion, "and we are in China." The dress is the best way to wear it. The woman who is in China, the best way to wear it.

5. Self-Actualization Needs
   When Winston Churchill said, "I have nothing to offer but my blood, my life, my faith in the eventual victory"...

HURRY GURDY BOY: We read your columns all the time but haven't seen anything on Denims in a while. What's up with that? — J.H., Newtok.

He just finished work on a new comedy called "If It's Tuesday, This Must Be Belgium." He plays the gardener himself and visits two weeks of every theater in the country himself to see how it's coming along. The movie will be released in a few months.

TRAVEL TIPS: We could use a little advice. We're two 15-year-old girls and have saved enough money for a five-week trip to Europe (my friend has an aunt there). Do you think the two girls can travel around the country by themselves? What do you think of camping possibilities? — W.-J., Barstow, Ill., N. Y.

I think she'd be the perfect place for two young travelers. Driving is fun, there's very little traffic and the roads are well-marked. Another idea is to use some of the popular train routes. You can almost get anywhere in the country by train. I'd make sure you have a good insurance policy if you're going to travel by train.

FAVORITE PLACE: We've been in the winter business. Have you heard of any fun places to cheer up? — L.R., Chicago.

Delighted you asked. I just found a new one recently: San Francisco. Everyone thought it would be a fad but it's turned out to be a great place. Lots of art galleries, good food and great atmosphere.®

Paint Pot: The bottom section of a milk carton is fine for making die-cast models. — Steve Skelton, Connell, N. Y.

Mint Flakes: Stir a large paper plate and mix a small bowl of cornstarch into a thick paste. — Mrs. J.E. Wister, Miami, Okla.

Clean Sweep: Emily the Made-up Sweeper is a handy sweeper to keep the dust from flying. — Mrs. J.E. Wister, Miami, Okla.

Gravy Trick: Throw the gravy, flour, and water into the blender for a quick mix. Then continue with your recipe. — Mrs. Robert Re, New York, N.Y.

Perfume Puff: Keep popcorm kernels in a sealed jar in the refrigerator. They pop better and won't burn. — L.H., Ogdensburg, N.J.

Miss Shuffi: A few drops of something fragrant like cinnamon in the vacuum cleaner leaves a lovely fragrance throughout the house. — Mrs. Horace Stedman, Norfolk, Va.

More Potato Trick: Add instant mashed potatoes, instead of flour or cornstarch, to save time. — Mrs. John J. Davis, Petrolia, Cal.

Extra Fluff: For fluffier mashed potatoes, try adding 1 pint of milk. — Mrs. Richard L. Jones, Binghamton, N.Y.

Biz soaks out stains and dirt which no other pre-soaker can. Test it yourself and see...

"Biz is better"

Housewives who tested Biz against another laundry pre-soaker prefer Biz almost 2 to 1.

Housewives all over America conducted tests in their own homes. Given unidentified samples of rinse and the other pre-soaker by an independent testing organization, housewives used both on their own laundry problems.

The results are conclusive:

Biz is overwhelmingly preferred! Housewives' classification of Biz as the "most effective pre-soaker".

For tough stains, Biz was preferred by about 2 to 1. For white clothes, Biz was preferred by more than 10 to 1. For red clothes, Biz was preferred by about 2 to 1. For blue clothes, Biz was preferred by about 10 to 1.

Biz is the most effective pre-soaker you can buy! It makes out stains which no other pre-soaker can. Biz has Illuminex — a combination of stain and dirt removal ingredients, including enzymes that break down soil and dirt biologi-

SAYS TO YOU: "Ask your dealer for Biz. Try it on your clothes. You'll never go back to the other pre-soaker!"
