Nix Tips Fail To Turn Up Elusive Suspect

BY WES PENDLETON

Two reports placing Kinney McNicoll Nix Jr., a new suspect in the murder of beauty queen, were reported by Oklahoma City police during the past week. McNicoll Nix Jr. was wanted in connection with the murder of Virginia Collins, a beauty queen who was last seen alive on June 15th.

The first report was made by an unknown person who said they saw McNicoll Nix Jr. at a local bar on June 17th. However, further investigation revealed that the witness was unreliable and the information was discarded.

The second report was made by a friend of McNicoll Nix Jr. who said they saw him at a local hotel on June 18th. Again, further investigation revealed that the information was unreliable and the witness was not trustworthy.

Despite these reports, Oklahoma City police are still searching for McNicoll Nix Jr. and urge anyone with information to come forward. The investigation is ongoing and no suspects have been arrested at this time.
