Jazzman Davis And Quartet Highlight Sunday's Concert

Jazzman Davis and Quartet are scheduled to perform at the annual jazz festival on Sunday. The event is expected to attract music enthusiasts from across the region. Davis, a renowned jazz pianist, will be accompanied by his quartet, consisting of a saxophonist, bassist, and drummer. The performance will include a mix of classic and contemporary jazz compositions. The event is free and open to the public. Ticket reservations are not required. Attendees are encouraged to bring their own chairs and blankets. The festival will also feature food and beverage vendors, as well as a silent auction to raise funds for the local arts community. For more information, visit the festival’s official website.

Keep Our Legislature Strong

With the debate over the state budget and the upcoming legislative session, it is important to keep our representatives accountable. The Oklahoma Legislature has done an outstanding job in handling our state's finances. However, it is crucial that we continue to hold them accountable for their actions. As a citizen, you have the power to make a difference by being informed and active in your community. If you want to make sure your voice is heard, be sure to contact your representatives and let them know what issues are important to you. Together, we can work towards a brighter future for Oklahoma.

The People's Voice

Youth

Despite the challenges faced by young people today, there is still hope for a better tomorrow. The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow, and it is important that we support them in their endeavors. We must work towards creating a safe and supportive environment that allows them to grow and flourish. By doing so, we can ensure a bright future for all.

Senator Soaper

In Support Of Direct Elect

The system of electing the President of the United States is outdated and needs to be reformed. Direct election by the people is the fairest and most democratic way to choose our leaders. We must work towards creating a system that truly represents the will of the people. It is time for change, and it is up to us to make it happen.

Frank Mankiewicz And Tom Braden

Bulldogged Justice

In Washington, it is often said that justice is blind. However, in many cases, it is the people who are bulldogged by the system. We must work towards creating a legal system that is fair and just for all. It is important that we support those who are fighting for justice and hold those in power accountable for their actions.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Rivers Real Boss Inside Pentagon

Washington, D.C. — The real boss inside the Pentagon is not the Secretary of Defense or the Joint Chiefs of Staff. It is the Rivers, a top executive who has been running the Pentagon for decades. Rivers has never been known for his transparency, but his influence is undeniable. As the Pentagon faces numerous challenges, Rivers will continue to play a key role in shaping its future.

Mrs. Meir 'Assured' Top Post

Mrs. Meir is expected to be named as the new top post of the United Nations. She has been a strong advocate for women's rights and has been involved in numerous international initiatives. Her appointment is expected to bring a new perspective to the organization and help it address the challenges it faces.

60,000 Will Visit Cherokee Center

The Cherokee Center is expected to attract 60,000 visitors this year. The center is a popular destination for tourists and offers a variety of attractions, including a museum, art gallery, and performing arts center. As the center continues to grow, it is important that we support it and ensure that it remains a valuable asset to the community.
