Brubeck Writes From Bible
Jazz Expert 'Sings New Song'

By LIBBY IRWIN

"If the AID system gets stuck in Congress, it will be because it ..." (Continued on page 3)

Brubeck, interviewed between rehearsals and sound checks, was staying in an up-scale hotel in Saigon, not far from the border with Laos. He had flown there from Hanoi and was heading for a performance in Ho Chi Minh City.

Brubeck, who has made a career of blending jazz with the music of other cultures, said he was interested in the idea of performing in Vietnam but was concerned about the security situation.

"I want to be sure I'm safe," he said. "I don't want to go into danger."}

NIXON, AIDES SET STRATEGY FOR VIETNAM

Washington -- President Nixon today set the new Vietnam strategy: to seek a "broad" settlement of the war in the fall, to begin a "comprehensive" peace treaty with the communist regimes in the fall, and to begin talks with the North Vietnamese in the fall.

The President said he had decided to seek a "broad" settlement of the war, which would include negotiations with the communist regimes in the fall.

"I want to be sure I'm safe," he said. "I don't want to go into danger."
