Loses Approach

WINDSOR (CBS) - The city of Windsor's last day in operation may be over, as the city has announced that it will be closing the city's borders to all non-residents effective immediately.

The city of Windsor has been operating under a state of emergency since March 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The city has been working to balance the budget and has announced that it is facing significant financial challenges.

The city has announced that it will be closing all non-essential services and that all residents will be required to stay at home except for essential activities.

The city has also announced that it will be closing all schools and that all non-essential businesses will be closed.

The city has urged all residents to stay home and to follow all public health guidelines to help prevent the spread of COVID-19.

Red Light Turns Studied By City

The Oklahoman City Council will study the issue of red light turning and its impact on public safety. The issue was brought to the council's attention by a community member.

The council is expected to discuss the issue during its next meeting and will likely take action to address the issue.

The council has also been asked to consider implementing a red light turning system in the city. The system would allow vehicles to turn at red lights without stopping.
