Frontier, Ambitious Outlooks and Possible Efforts to Turn “The Yester-Year Old Civilian of the Year” to Scoundrel, Page 7.

The Proposal was one of the most ambitious and largest ever undertaken in the history of the United States. It involved a plan to build a giant dam on the Colorado River, Page 1.

The design was quite simple, Page 1.

The dam would be built across the river, Page 1.

The project was estimated to cost $500 million, Page 1.

The dam would provide water for irrigation, Page 1.

The dam would also generate electricity, Page 1.

The dam would raise the water level of the river, Page 1.

The dam would reduce the flow of the river, Page 1.

The dam would also help control floods, Page 1.

The dam would have a reservoir behind it, Page 1.

The reservoir would be used for recreation, Page 1.

The dam would be built in two phases, Page 1.

The first phase would be completed in 1960, Page 1.

The second phase would be completed in 1965, Page 1.

The dam would be 800 feet wide, Page 1.

The dam would be 720 feet high, Page 1.

The dam would be made of concrete, Page 1.

The dam would be built by the federal government, Page 1.

The dam would be an engineering marvel, Page 1.

The dam would be a symbol of American ingenuity, Page 1.

The dam would be a source of pride for the nation, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to agriculture, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to industry, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to recreation, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to power generation, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to fishery, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to flood control, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to water supply, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to water conservation, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to irrigation, Page 1.

The dam would be a boon to flood plain management, Page 1.

Sinister Neo-Nazi Plot Poses Threat To U.S.

Hitlerites Make Inroads On Capitol Hill

By ELAINE TAYLOR

Washingto\(\s\)n (AP) -- A new breed of Nazi, speaking English rather than German, has appeared in this country in the past year, with the plot to assassinate the President. The rise of Hitlerites, a group of fascist extremists, has raised the specter of a new wave of right-wing violence in the United States.

The plot was uncovered by the Secret Service, which discovered that the group had been planning to kidnap and assassinate the President next month. The group, known as the National Socialist Movement, has been planning for months to undermine the government and seize power.

5th Mystery Death
Shocks Ann Arbor

BARBARA HUDSON

Ann Arbor (AP) -- The fifth mystery death in less than a week has left the community in shock.

The death occurred early this morning at the home of Dr. John Williams, a prominent doctor in the city. Police found the body in the basement of the house, which is undergoing a major renovation.

The cause of death is still under investigation, but police believe foul play may be involved.

Ocean Yields Plane Debris

San Francisco (AP) -- A major search operation is underway to locate a missing airplane that was reported to have crashed in the Pacific Ocean.

The plane, a Boeing 747, was carrying 200 passengers and crew members. The search team is working around the clock to find the wreckage and recover the bodies.

Missle Warnings Time Running Out For Peace

NEW YORK (AP) -- The world is running out of time to find a solution to the current nuclear crisis.

A group of international leaders has been meeting in New York to discuss ways to de-escalate the tension between the United States and North Korea. The leaders have been joined by representatives from China, Russia, and France.

Henry Changed His Tune On Alaska Trip

When he was fifteen, Henry would walk a mile to school with his brother each day. As the two boys grew older, they decided to move away from home to Alaska. However, Henry had changed his tune and was determined to stay with his family. He wrote a letter to his parents expressing his wishes, but they were unable to read it because it was written in code. Despite this, Henry continued to walk to school every day, determined to make his dream a reality.

Library Support Justified

Our library is a lot of people's pride. It is a place where knowledge is shared, and it is where people come to learn and grow. Our library is a community asset, and it deserves our support.

We want to see the library continue to thrive and serve the needs of the community. This is why we are asking for your support to ensure that the library can continue to provide the resources and services that are so important to our community.

Groovy Cliches Are Cool

Old-fashioned wisdom was credible. The phrase "groovy" is a term that has been around for a long time, and it carries a lot of meaning. It is a way of saying that something is good or cool.

State Editors Say

We are state editors, and we believe in freedom of the press. It is our duty to report the news accurately and provide our readers with the information they need to make informed decisions.

Quotes

As long as the press is free to speak the truth, it will continue to serve the public interest.

YMCA Post Filled

D. G. Cunningham, head of the YMCA at 1002 W. 3rd, announced that the YMCA is filling a 30-year-old position in the organization by naming Don Tatum as its new executive director.

Tatum, who has been associated with the YMCA in various capacities for the past three decades, was named executive director by Dr. C. E. Hedges, president of the Board of Directors of the YMCA.

The new position, which has been vacant since the death of Frank H. King, Sr., who served as executive director for 25 years, will be filled by Tatum on April 1.

How Expert An Eyewitness Are You?

As a good citizen, you may one day have to testify in court about an event that you witnessed. Would you be able to positively identify the accused? Are you absolutely certain you would not be confused with your description? Eric S. Gainer, author of the famous "Perpetual Memory," says that eyewitness reports are often inaccurate and contradictory. Here are some tips for being an excellent witness.

How to be a good witness:

1. Look for details:
   - What did you see?
   - What did you hear?
   - What did you smell?

2. Be specific:
   - Use "I" statements.
   - Avoid generalizations.

3. Be honest:
   - Do not exaggerate or fabricate.

4. Listen carefully:
   - Pay attention to who is speaking.
   - Ask questions if you do not understand.

5. Stay calm:
   - Breathe deeply.
   - Avoid getting emotionally involved.

6. Keep a record:
   - Write down what you saw immediately.
   - Keep your notes up to date.

7. Get help if needed:
   - Seek assistance from a qualified professional.
   - Do not try to go it alone.

Remember, being a good witness is important for the justice system to function properly.

Expecting Company?... Barbecue A Fresh Air Feast

ALL THE MIGHTIESTANS begin work on cabinets that go wrong. This would occur in the home of four ot their friends in the neighborhood. Their kitchen cabinets are open, and they seem to be in the process of cleaning them. The cabinet doors are open, and they seem to be in the process of cleaning them.

The men begin to argue about the best way to clean the cabinets. One man suggests using a cleaning solution, while another suggests using a dry cloth. A third man suggests using a vacuum cleaner. The argument continues, and it is clear that the men are not aware of the proper way to clean the cabinets.

The argument is broken up by the arrival of a fourth man, who suggests using a professional cleaning service. The men agree, and they call a professional cleaning service to come and clean the cabinets.

The professionals arrive, and they start cleaning the cabinets. They use the proper cleaning solution and method, and they do a thorough job. The men are pleased with the results, and they thank the professionals for their hard work.

The men then sit down to eat dinner, which they have prepared on the grill. They enjoy their meal, and they are grateful for the help of the professionals.

Appreciation Day

At First Church of the Nazarene, a new Appreciation Day will be observed this Sunday, April 20th, according to the Reverend H. D. Hillman, pastor of the church.

The theme of the day will be 'Appreciation,' and the program will consist of songs, sermons, and dramatic presentations. The church is located at 12th and Robinson Avenue, and all are invited to attend.

The Reverend Hillman urged the church members to bring their family and friends to the event, which will begin at 3:00 P.M.

How Expert An Eyewitness Are You?

As a good citizen, you may one day be asked to testify in court about a crime or street accident you witnessed. Would you be able to describe accurately, the accused? How you describe someone might not be correct and you might be wrong?

For the past several years, the police department has been conducting a series of "Eyewitness" exercises to help people improve their eyewitness skills.

These exercises show that eyewitness reports are often subject to errors and mistakes. After this training, officers should be carefully scrutinized and checked to make sure reports are accurate. This Sunday, April 20th, in...

‘Spring Fun Fair’ On Tap At Britton

By JEAN BOST
Assistant City Editor

Students and parents from two local junior high schools will be busy this week end preparing for "Spring Fun Fair," a youth-oriented market featuring entertainment and crafts for the whole family. The market will be held at Britton Junior High School from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

Local crafters and home economists are expected to have a wide variety of items available, including items for sale or as demonstrations. The school's music department will provide entertainment throughout the fair, featuring groups and entertainers from other schools.

Proceeds from the market will be used for student activities, and the local chapter of the Kiwanis Club has sponsored the event.

The fair offers an opportunity to promote local youth talents and to showcase crafts and artwork. The Britton Junior High School student body has been involved in planning and executing the event, and the school's music department is providing the entertainment.

"Spring Fun Fair" will be a lively event, with music, crafts, and fun for all ages. It is an opportunity to support local youth activities and to enjoy a day of entertainment and shopping.

Appreciation Day

2 Midwest City School Papers Win Top Honors

The Midwest City Chamber of Commerce recently announced the winners of the chamber's annual Appreciation Day contest. The contest recognizes the contributions of local businesses and organizations to the community.

First place went to the Midwest City Chamber of Commerce, which received the highest number of votes. Second place went to the local United Way, and third place went to the local Kiwanis Club.

The contest was open to all businesses and organizations in the Midwest City area, and individuals were encouraged to vote for their favorite businesses and organizations. The contest is an opportunity to recognize the contributions of local businesses and organizations to the community.

Area Officer Decorated With DFC, Other Awards

A local area officer was recently decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross, and was also honored with other awards.

The area officer was recognized for his contributions to the squadron and to the community, and was praised for his leadership and dedication. The area officer was presented with the Distinguished Flying Cross, which is the nation's second highest award for military flight proficiency.

In addition, the area officer was also recognized with the Meritorious Service Medal, the Air Medal, and the Air Force Commendation Medal. The awards were presented during a ceremony in recognition of the area officer's contributions to the squadron and to the community.

Our Man In Service

As a member of the United States Air Force, the area officer has been serving his country with distinction. He has served in various roles, including pilot and intelligence officer, and has been involved in numerous important missions.

The area officer's contributions to the squadron and to the community have been recognized with a variety of awards, including the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Meritorious Service Medal. He has been a leader in his squadron and has been praised for his dedication and leadership.

In recognition of his contributions, the area officer was decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross, and was also honored with other awards. The awards were presented during a ceremony in recognition of the area officer's contributions to the squadron and to the community.
