Who Called The Guard? OU 'Enemy' Never Encountered

By ERICK GROVE

The University of Oklahoma football team has never faced a more intense challenge in its history. The Sooners, led by Coach Bob Stoops, are looking to avenge their loss to Kansas State last weekend and prove that they are the team to beat in the Big 12 Conference.

The Sooners will face a stiff test against the high-powered offense of Texas Tech, which average over 40 points per game. The Sooners defense will have to step up to the challenge and prevent the Red Raiders from scoring.

The game will be held at the Gaylord Family Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman. Kickoff is set for 3:00 PM Central Standard Time. Fans are encouraged to arrive early to ensure their seats.

Terror At 32! Is Baby Of Governor Hopeless?

By DAVID GRAHAM

Attorney General David Graham is in the most controversial position of all those being mentioned as possible successors to Governor David Boren.

Only 32, he is in the "baby" of the lot at seven years of age. And he is the political gift that keeps on giving to his unprecedented position. He is not shy about it. He is not afraid of it. He is not too proud of it.

"I am a Democrat," he says. "I am a liberal." He is also a young man on the state's progressive political scene. He is the son of the late Senator Carl Graham, who was a progressive in state and federal politics.

"I am not going to be a candidate," he adds. "I am just going to sit tight and see what happens." But he is not going to stay out of politics. He is going to be an active participant in the political process. Graham says he has been an active participant in the community and that he has been involved in community affairs. He is also a active participant in the local Democratic party.

Demos Hail Tax Reform

The Three Faces Of Dean

Jimmy Dean, singer and folk singer, was arrested Monday in three separate states. He was arrested for contempt of court, breach of peace, and disorderly conduct. He was released on his own recognizance.

Jimmy Dean's arrest came after he refused to testify at a hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Dean had been ordered to appear before the committee to answer questions about his activities in the 1950s, including his connections with the Communist Party.

Dean has been an active participant in the political process. Graham says he has been an active participant in the community and that he has been involved in community affairs. He is also a active participant in the local Democratic party.

American Ambush Kills 50 Reds

The American ambush in the war against the Reds has been a devastating blow. The scale of the attack has been unprecedented, with 50 casualties in a single incident. The Reds have been left reeling from the blow, their ranks thinning as they struggle to recover.

Complications Not Attacks Get Blame In Heart Deaths

The situation in the heart area has been revived, but complications are still posing a threat. It appears that attacks may not be the root cause, but rather other factors are at play. Further investigation is needed to uncover the true cause.

Demos

The Democratic National Committee has been under scrutiny recently, with questions about its financial practices and leadership. The party is currently in a state of flux, facing internal challenges.

Nixon Proposes Big Tax Reform

In a major initiative, Nixon has proposed significant tax reforms. The proposals aim to simplify the tax code and provide relief for middle-class Americans. The response from the public has been mixed, with some supporting the changes and others concerned about their impact.

North Korea Plays Risky Game

North Korea should play it safe, just as the United States is doing, by reaching an agreement with the North Korean government. The U.S. has already offered to work on a solution, but North Korea seems to want to create a war. The U.S. has not yet made any promises, but the country has had plenty of time to change its ways. Now is the time to make the right decision, and the right decision is a peace agreement. It is a good decision for the North Korean people and it is a good decision for the world. It is a decision that will increase the value of North Korea and the value of the rest of the world. It is a decision that will make the world a better place. Now is the time to make the right decision, and the right decision is a peace agreement. It is a good decision for the North Korean people and it is a good decision for the world. It is a decision that will increase the value of North Korea and the value of the rest of the world. It is a decision that will make the world a better place. Now is the time to make the right decision, and the right decision is a peace agreement.

Ciardi Titillates Poetry Initiates

BY GEORGE BRANSON

We in "The Oklahoma Journal" and in other publications are giving some space to the appearance of a new collection of poetry, "The Near Revolution," by the well-known poet and critic, Mr. Charles E. Litchfield, who has been at the University of Oklahoma for some time.

In this volume, Mr. Litchfield has taken up the question of the relationship between the poet and the reader, and he has done so with feeling and insight.

Mr. Litchfield says that the poet should be a "shaper of images," and that the reader should be a "shaper of meaning." He goes on to say that the poet should not only make the reader think, but should also make him feel.

He also suggests that the poet should try to create a "nervous" atmosphere in his poetry, so that the reader will be forced to think for himself.

Mr. Litchfield's poetry is characterized by a sense of humor and a keen eye for the absurd. He is a master of the short, pithy sentence, and his poems are often filled with paradoxes.

In conclusion, Mr. Litchfield's "The Near Revolution" is a book that should be read by all who are interested in poetry. It is a book that will make the reader think, and it will also make him laugh.
