North Korea Warns Of War

There is no way to re-write the headline today, so the public that needs to hear the words "North Korea Warns of War" must now hear it again. A recent article in the Detroit News revealed that the North Korean government has warned of "armed forces" and "blows" that will be directed at the United States. The warning was accompanied by a photograph of a nuclear bomb and a lightning bolt, which is considered a lucky charm in Korea. The story is important because it demonstrates how the North Korean government continues to threaten the United States with nuclear weapons, despite recent progress in arms control talks. The American public should pay attention to these developments and continue to support our armed forces.

Neighborhood Development Program 'No Salvation'

By MARK ROSS

The hopes of the neighborhood development program may be coming to an end, as new plans are being discussed to save the program.

The program, which was launched two years ago, has struggled to gain support and funding, and many residents have expressed frustration with the progress made.

The city council is expected to vote on a new proposal next month, which could potentially salvage the program. However, some residents are skeptical about the chances of success.

"This program has been a disaster," said resident Jane Doe. "I don't see how they can save it now."

PULLING BOAT TRICKY: Operation for Most

Opening a car with a trailer attached entails safety and special driving skills and requires constant awareness on the part of the driver so as not to affect the movement of the vehicle. Here are some tips that may be helpful:

1. Make sure a good vision of the road and natural light is available.
2. Have a clear path to the site where you plan to leave the vehicle.
3. Do not leave the car with a trailer attached to the vehicle on a street.
4. Use only experienced drivers to pull the trailer.
5. Be sure to have the required equipment for the operation.
6. Always use a proper hitch to connect the trailer to the vehicle.
7. Be aware of the weight distribution of the trailer and the vehicle.
8. Always use the proper safety equipment, including lights and reflectors.
9. Be aware of the weather conditions and plan your trip accordingly.
10. Always check the trailer's safety features, including brakes and tires.

The Swimwear Thing

By HELEN HENNESSY

NEW YORK—(USA)—

Swimwear for 1963—The good news is that girls are wearing the same type of beach attire that they are wearing at home, and the bad news is that the sales are down in those sections of the stores where swimwear is sold. There is a feel of the past in the air, reminiscent of the World War II era, when women were busy building warships and aircraft, and the men were off fighting overseas. The women were forced to wear practical clothing, and this trend has carried over into the present day.

Anything goes as long as it’s original, tasteful and in good taste.

Interestingly enough, into this mix comes the new delousing type of beach hat, known as the "behrn" or "beach hat." The hat is a long, narrow hat that covers the head and shoulders, and it is worn with a scarf or sash tied around the neck. It is a practical and fashionable hat, and it is sure to be a hit this summer.

Middy Dress, 'Salty Chic'

There's a nautical style to the mid-dress (upper) with its button-front placket and the navy blue trim. The dress is made of a soft, cotton blend and has a loose fit, making it comfortable to wear. The skirt is pleated and flared at the waist, and the bodice is fitted at the bust. The design is simple yet elegant, and it would be perfect for a beach or nautical-themed event.

'Coin Diver' Makes A Fashion Splash

By HELEN HENNESSY

NEW YORK—(USA)—

A new trend in women's fashion is the "coin diver." This is a woman who dives into the sea with a coin in her hand, and she uses it to purchase items from the bottom of the ocean. The trend has been popularized by a young woman named Trutti, who is known for her bold and daring style.

Trutti is a former model who has turned her passion for adventure into a career. She is known for her love of the ocean and her ability to find treasure underwater. She has been featured in several magazines and has even written a book about her adventures.

Trutti is not the only one who is enjoying the "coin diver" trend. Many other women are also diving into the ocean with coins in hand, and they are finding all sorts of things, from rare coins to jewelry and other treasures. It's a fun and exciting way to explore the ocean and find hidden treasures.

To be sure of the highest quality in the purchase and maintenance of a boat look for our OCMDA emblem.
