Nixon Social Security Plan To Be Rejected, Mills Says

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) - President Richard Nixon's plan to create a Social Security trust fund to help pay for Medicare and Medicaid programs drew a negative reaction Thursday from Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) who said the proposal was a "ruse to create a private fund to be used to help finance the rapidly growing costs of federal programs with public money.

"To be blunt," Mansfield said, "the idea of establishing a Social Security trust fund to help finance the rapidly growing costs of Medicare and Medicaid is a ruse to create a private fund to be used to help finance the rapidly growing costs of federal programs with public money.

Baltimore Orioles vs New York Yankees

The game was a close contest, with the Bombers emerging victorious. The Orioles will look to bounce back in their next match.

Wilson Stokes, a long-standing rival in the league, continues to feud with the Reds. The tension between the two teams has escalated, making it a highly anticipated matchup.

Deadline for entering the softball leagues was set, allowing aspiring players and teams to prepare for the upcoming season.

The Celtics are currently on a hot streak, aiming for their 11th victory in a row. Their next challenge will be against a tough opponent.

Richmond, E. C., was shut out by Lopez, who threw a no-hitter. This is a significant achievement for Lopez, who has been a standout pitcher for the team.

The Bosox made a strategic trade, acquiring Billy Conigliaro from the Red Sox. Conigliaro is expected to contribute significantly to the team's offense.
